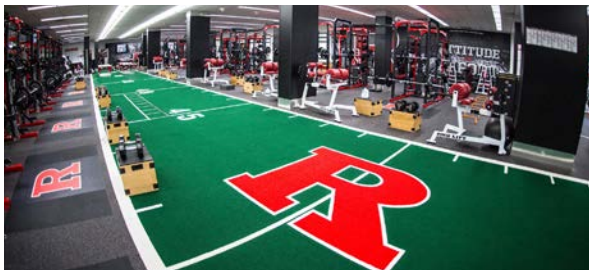
COACH SCHIANO

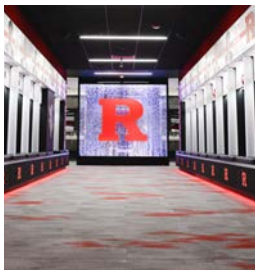
The all-time wins leader in Rutgers football history, Greg Schiano is in his 18th season as the head football coach "On the Banks" in 2026. The second tenure, now in the Big Ten, has been highlighted by exciting victories, bowl appearances, academic success and a pipeline of players to the NFL. All of this has taken place with increased fan support and unprecedented attendance records. The Wyckoff, New Jersey, native previously led the Scarlet Knights to national prominence from 2001-11 before returning to the Piscataway sidelines in 2020. Overall, Schiano has directed the Scarlet Knights to three bowl appearances in the past five years, nine postseason berths and six bowl championships. He has coached 118 RU players who signed NFL contracts, including at least one draft pick each of the past five years to tie a school record, while guiding the program to the top APR score in the nation and seeing the program post a record high in GPA and Academic All-Big Ten honorees during the fall 2025 semester. The 2006 National Coach of the Year owns three nine-win campaigns and coached 23 Rutgers All-America selections, including five over the past two seasons.

RUTGERS GETS YOU READY

Rutgers football continues to set records both on and off the field under the guidance of head coach Greg Schiano. Upholding the academic prestige of Rutgers University is the standard for the Scarlet Knights, who secured the nation's top Academic Progress Rate in 2010 and ranked No. 2 in 2011. In 2026, Rutgers football led all FBS programs with 21 student-athletes named to the National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society, which honors combined academic and athletic success. In addition, a program-record 65 were named to the Academic All-Big Ten list in 2025 after recording the highest GPA in team history during the fall semester. The Scarlet Knights have made their impact felt in the community as well, volunteering with Special Olympics New Jersey, visiting local hospitals and participating in youth camps. The team has also lent its voice to critical discussions around social activism, racial justice and tolerance.

FACILITIES





Rutgers football has one of the top football complexes in the nation. Included within the Hale Center is the state-of-the-art Ron and Joanna Garutti Strength and Conditioning Center, an interactive lobby entrance, spacious meeting rooms, a player lounge and an in-house academic support center.

The recently upgraded Marco Battaglia Practice Complex is the site where the Scarlet Knights train and practice and their downtime is spent in the new Greg and Anna Brown Locker Room, thanks to the generosity of the Brown family.

BOWL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Rutgers football advanced to one bowl game in its history prior to Schiano's first tenure. Since then, he has led the program to nine of the school's 13 appearances, which includes five consecutive victories with the 2006 Texas Bowl being the first postseason win in school history. The success resumed with a win in the 2023 Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl. Schiano's six bowl wins are tied for third-most among active Big Ten head coaches and tied for 11th among active FBS head coaches.

NFL KNIGHTS

Rutgers football has established a strong pipeline to the National Football League, with 22 Scarlet Knights on rosters ahead of the 2026 season. Ten logged snaps last season, while three Scarlet Knights — RB Kyle Monangai (5), RB Isiah Pacheco (2) and WR Bo Melton (1) — combined for eight touchdowns last fall, as a Rutgers football player has produced an NFL touchdown in 30 consecutive seasons dating back to 1996. After being selected in the seventh round of last year's NFL Draft, Monangai finished his rookie season with 169 carries for 783 yards and five touchdowns. His 176 rushing yards against Cincinnati on Nov. 2 were the most for a rookie in a single game last season and the eighth-highest mark across the NFL. This April, QB Athan Kaliakmanis was selected in the seventh round, pick No. 223, of the 2026 NFL Draft by the Washington Commanders. In addition, TE Kenny Fletcher Jr. (Tampa Bay), DB Cam Miller (Carolina), DL Eric O'Neill (Detroit) and WR DT Sheffield (New York Jets) signed as undrafted free agents, making it 118 Scarlet Knights to join the NFL after playing for head coach Greg Schiano.

THE RUTGERS BOARDWALK

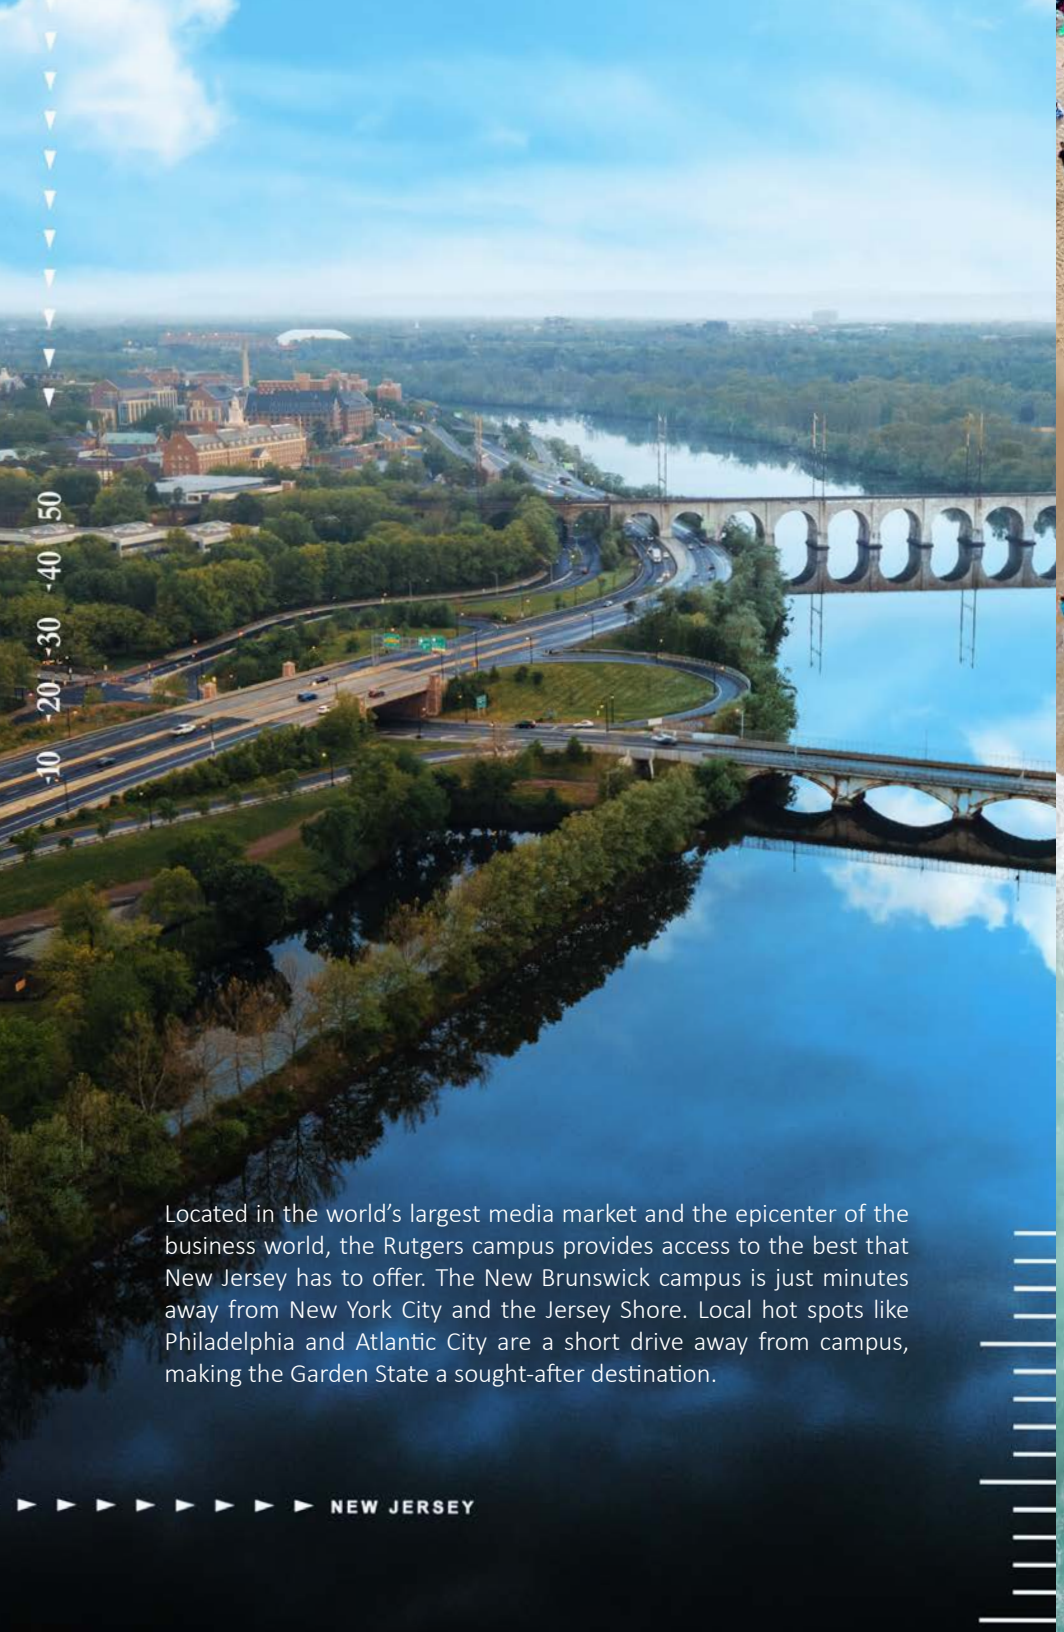
New Jersey is a state known for its grit, passion and energy. There's no better example of all of these things than Rutgers Football game day at SHI Stadium. Home of the Rutgers Scarlet Knights, SHI Stadium is located on Busch Campus in Piscataway, New Jersey. Packed, loud and 52,454 proud, SHI Stadium is the site for the ultimate college game day experience. The fun doesn't just begin at kickoff. Four hours prior to the start of each game, New Jerseyans unite in the excitement of our game day experience with The Rutgers Boardwalk. Visit The Rutgers Boardwalk to enjoy carnival games, rides, live entertainment, special guests, a beer garden, New Jersey's best food trucks and more. Entrance is free, and there's tons of fun for the whole family!

Get there early for the pregame parade and pep rally featuring the Marching Scarlet Knights, Spirit Team, Sir Henry and the Scarlet Knight riding his horse "Excalibur" down The Rutgers Boardwalk just before the football team arrives. Then, join your Scarlet Knights and head coach Greg Schiano at team arrival for the traditional Scarlet Walk! Get your high fives from the team along the Scarlet Walk as they honor the long-standing tradition of touching the First Game statue that commemorates Rutgers' victory in the first college football game ever played.

In New Jersey, our fans are just louder. Inside SHI Stadium you will find all of the traditions, characters and festivities of Rutgers Football. Be on the lookout for the Scarlet Knight, who can be seen riding his horse "Excalibur" across the field each time Rutgers scores. As the fans cheer you will also hear the boom of the revolutionary war-era cannon, fired by our historic Cannon Crew that symbolizes Henry Rutgers, the University's namesake and American Revolutionary War colonel. Listen for the celebratory train horn throughout the game and enjoy fireworks and other special effects that help bring SHI Stadium to life. Atop SHI Stadium, look for the number 52 displayed proudly over the 50-yard line in honor of Eric LeGrand, a Rutgers icon and the only player in program history to have his number retired.

In the student section behind the south end zone, don't miss the Riot Squad, the best and most passionate group of student fans in the country. Next to them, you'll see and hear our Marching Scarlet Knights bringing Rutgers pride to game day, including pregame and halftime performances. On the sidelines, Sir Henry and our cheer and dance programs supply energy all game day long. High above all of the festivities, check out SHI Stadium's state-of-the-art videoboard where you can catch exciting moments, such as the team's dramatic walk from the locker room to the field and the classic Sopranos-themed pregame video. Game day at SHI Stadium promises to be a memorable experience.

THE RUTGERS GAME DAY EXPERIENCE



Located in the world's largest media market and the epicenter of the business world, the Rutgers campus provides access to the best that New Jersey has to offer. The New Brunswick campus is just minutes away from New York City and the Jersey Shore. Local hot spots like Philadelphia and Atlantic City are a short drive away from campus, making the Garden State a sought-after destination.

GREG SCHIANO

HEAD COACH (18TH SEASON)

The all-time wins leader in Rutgers football history, Greg Schiano is in his 18th season as the head football coach "On the Banks" in 2026. The second tenure, now in the Big Ten, has been highlighted by exciting victories, bowl appearances, academic success and a pipeline of players to the NFL. All of this has taken place with increased fan support and unprecedented attendance records. The Wyckoff, New Jersey, native previously led the Scarlet Knights to national prominence from 2001-11 before returning to the Piscataway sidelines in 2020.

Overall, Schiano has directed the Scarlet Knights to three bowl appearances in the past five years, nine postseason berths and six bowl championships. He has coached 118 RU players who signed NFL contracts, including at least one draft pick each of the past five years to tie a school record, while guiding the program to the top APR score in the nation and seeing the program post a record high in GPA and Academic All-Big Ten honorees during the fall 2025 semester. The 2006 National Coach of the Year owns three nine-win campaigns and coached 23 Rutgers All-America selections, including five over the past two seasons. SHI Stadium has seen 12 sellouts since 2022, as two of the top three home crowds in program history took place in 2025.

RETURN TO RUTGERS

Coming back to Piscataway in Dec. 2019, Schiano has built the program with a foundation based on F.A.M.I.L.Y., TRUST and CHOP, emphasizing player and cultural development. His recognized success in the development of players to reach the next level and young men to be prepared for life has continually attracted new recruits and their families to Rutgers.

The 2025 Scarlet Knights averaged 407.1 yards of total offense overall and 389.1 in Big Ten play, the team's best marks in a season since joining the league. Rutgers had the second-leading passer (QB Athan Kaliakmanis, 260.3) and third-leading rusher (RB Antwan Raymond, 103.4) and receiver (WR KJ Duff, 90.3) in the Big Ten, as RU was one of eight teams nationally to produce a 3,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver. It was the second time in program history achieving the feat and first time since 2007. Duff and Raymond, who were both Second Team All-Big Ten honorees, joined OL Kwabena Asamoah as All-America selections. On special teams, Rutgers led the nation with three punt return touchdowns, all off blocked punts, and leads the nation with 13 blocked punts since 2022.

Rutgers continues to develop players for the NFL, with Kaliakmanis (Commanders) taken in 2026 to make it five consecutive years with at least one draft pick. DB Robert Longerbeam (Ravens), DL Kyonte Hamilton (Texans) and RB Kyle Monangai (Bears) all were selected in the 2025 NFL Draft, the most picks for the program since 2013. Previously, DB Max Melton was selected in the second round of the 2024 NFL Draft by the Cardinals at No. 43 overall, the highest pick from RU since Schiano's first tenure in 2010. That followed DB Christian Braswell's selection by the Jaguars in 2023. In addition, 23 other Scarlet Knights have signed contracts as free agents over the past four seasons.

RU won a program-best four Big Ten games in 2024 and picked up seven victories overall in the regular season for the first time in a decade. The season saw the team start 4-0, including a thrilling victory over Washington, the national runner-up the prior year, in front of a sellout crowd for The Blackout showcased on a FOX national primetime broadcast. The campaign ended with a three-win November to claim a bid to the Rate Bowl in Arizona.

Monangai, who developed into the second-leading rusher in school history, and OL Hollin Pierce earned All-America honors from Phil Steele, with Monangai becoming the first Scarlet Knight to claim First Team All-Big Ten on offense in both the coaches and media votes. The duo was part of 12 overall recognized in the All-Big Ten voting and among five from the program who were invited to the NFL Scouting Combine, the second most in RU history.

The team averaged 28.9 points per game, the best since 2008, while posting the fourth most total offense (4,975) for a season in program history. The defense held 3-of-4 opponents under 20 points in November, as LB Dariel Djabome ranked fifth in the conference with 8.1 tackles per game. In the kicking game, PK Jai Patel matched the program record by making his final 13 field goals of the season and took over possession of the standard at 18 with five more consecutive makes to start 2025.

"The ball is the program" is the emphasis for success, as Rutgers led the Big Ten and ranked third nationally with just nine turnovers lost. That included winning or neutralizing the turnover battle in 11-of-13 games. The Scarlet Knights were also one of the least penalized teams nationally, ranking fifth with only four penalties against and 34.15 penalty yards per game. That trend continued in 2025 by finishing fourth in the country with only 391 penalty yards and ninth with just 11 turnovers lost. Since 2020, RU is 20-3 when not committing a turnover in a game.

On the recruiting front, Schiano and his staff have continued to build the roster and fill the pipeline starting with the top players in New Jersey, as well as in the State of Rutgers and the Big Ten footprint. Attracting student-athletes to a F.A.M.I.L.Y. atmosphere, defined culture and proven record of player development, Rutgers signed a consensus top 30 class in 2025 with 10 four-star prospects. That followed bringing in seven four stars in 2024, including welcoming the top 247Sports New York prospect for the third straight year. The 2022 class ranked as the highest for the Scarlet Knights in the Big Ten era according to ESPN and 247Sports. In addition, Schiano has successfully used the transfer portal to identify talent and cultural fits to immediately impact the program.

In 2023, the Scarlet Knights compiled seven wins for the program's first winning season since 2014. The campaign was capped by a 31-24 win over Miami in the Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl. The regular season schedule ranked as the second hardest nationally by ESPN, including wins over bowl participants Northwestern and Virginia Tech, plus an 18-point comeback in the fourth quarter to defeat Michigan State. In addition, Rutgers saw 13 different players recognized in the All-Big Ten voting, the second highest total for the program in a season. The defense ranked 16th nationally in total defense (313.5), posting its best mark and ranking for a season in the Big Ten era. Additionally, the Scarlet Knights recorded their best numbers in Big Ten play for total (337.9) and scoring defense (25.1). Monangai highlighted the offensive production with a Big Ten-best 1,262 rushing yards. On special teams, RU scored two game-changing touchdowns off blocked punts in wins over Indiana and Miami, and Patel went 15-of-18 (83.3 percent) on field goals, the most accurate season in program history.

SCHIANO HAS LED RU TO NINE BOWL GAMES

Schiano led Rutgers to a 3-0 start in 2022. The win at Temple marked the 79th victory for Schiano, who passed the legendary Frank Burns as the program's all-time wins leader. Rutgers also set its average home attendance record. Earning national recognition, three-time captain P Adam Korsak claimed First Team All-America status and won the 2022 Ray Guy Award as the nation's best punter. It marked the first on-field national award won by a Rutgers football player in program history.

The 2021 season featured two Big Ten road wins, a come-from-behind victory at Illinois that saw a late fourth-down stop and a five-touchdown triumph over Indiana, the program's largest margin of victory in a Big Ten game. The defense finished second in the conference in third down conversions against, while the offense saw both WR Bo Melton (Seahawks) and RB Isiah Pacheco (Chiefs) selected in the NFL Draft. Led by Korsak, an All-America honoree by multiple outlets, the punt unit set the NCAA record for net punt average (45.25). Rutgers saw seven from the 2021 roster earn invitations to postseason all-star games and five sign NFL contracts, including Pacheco, who appeared in the Super Bowl each of his first three professional seasons, winning two championships as the Chiefs' starting tailback.

With just nine days' notice, Schiano led the Scarlet Knights to the 2021 TaxSlayer Gator Bowl on New Year's Eve, battling top 20 Wake Forest in front of a national television audience of over three million on ESPN. The Scarlet Knights gained valuable experience and exposure participating in the nation's sixth oldest bowl game in Jacksonville, Florida.

The 2020 season presented unforeseen challenges dealing with the coronavirus pandemic. Playing a Big Ten-only schedule, the Scarlet Knights were one of just two teams in the conference to play all nine of its scheduled games. RU, despite missing spring and summer camp, matched the program high at the time with three Big Ten victories, all away from Piscataway to equal the number of league road wins the previous six seasons combined. Rutgers posted a program-best 26.7 points per game in a Big Ten season. The Scarlet Knights had 14 players recognized in the All-Big Ten voting, the most for the program since joining the conference. That included four on the top three teams, with WR Aron Cruickshank, the Big Ten Rodgers-Dwight Return Specialist of the Year and honorable mention All-America pick by Phil Steele, and LB Olakunle Fatukasi both earning a spot on the first team.

Off the field, the Scarlet Knights launched #Chop4Change to spread a message of unity and equality, while registering every student-athlete on the team to vote in elections. The initiative also involves giving back to the community through various forms and continues to be a staple of the Rutgers football culture.

The program also achieved academic success with 310 student-athletes recognized on the Fall Academic All-Big Ten list the past six years, resetting the program record three times, with 14 earning distinguished status in 2026. The team posted its highest GPA (3.43) ever as a program during the fall 2025 semester and led all FBS programs with 21 named to the National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society.

BOWL SUCCESS

Rutgers football advanced to one bowl game in program history prior to Schiano's first tenure. Since then, he has led the program to nine of the school's 13 appearances, which includes five consecutive victories with the 2006 Texas Bowl being the first postseason win in school history. The success resumed with a win in the 2023 Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl over Miami. Schiano's six bowl wins are tied for third most among active Big Ten head coaches and tied for 11th among active FBS head coaches.

Building up the Scarlet Knights with three rejuvenating recruiting classes to start, Schiano put together an upset win over Syracuse to close 2003 before knocking off Michigan State to start 2004. The team broke through in 2005 with a 7-5 record, the first winning season since 1992 and a trip to the Insight Bowl for RU's first bowl since 1978.

Moving to the memorable 2006 campaign, Rutgers went 11-2, earned the program's first national top 10 ranking, peaking at No. 7, and won a bowl championship with a convincing 37-10 victory over Kansas State in the Texas Bowl. "Pandemonium in Piscataway" was achieved with a 28-25 upset of No. 3 Louisville in front of a raucous home crowd and national television audience. It was the first triumph for the program over a top 25 opponent since 1988. Schiano collected the Eddie Robinson, Walter Camp, Home Depot and Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year awards, as well as the Big East Coach of the Year following the season. The final national ranking of No. 12 still stands as the high-water mark in program history. RU was ranked 20 weeks during Schiano's first tenure after appearing in the AP Poll only nine times prior.

The momentum continued in 2007 with eight more wins, which included a 30-27 victory over No. 2 USF. The season was capped by running past Ball State, 52-30, in the International Bowl and set school records for scoring (426), first downs (294) and total offense (5,841). RU also became the first and still only team in NCAA history to have a 3,000-yard passer (QB Mike Teel), a 2,000-yard rusher (RB Ray Rice) and two 1,000-yard receivers (WR Kenny Britt & WR Tiquan Underwood) in the same season. The 2008 campaign started 1-5, but the Scarlet Knights reeled off a six-game winning streak to become bowl eligible again and went on to beat NC State, 29-23, in the PapaJohns.com Bowl to finish with seven straight in the win column. Then in 2009, RU beat a top 25 opponent for the fourth consecutive year with a 31-0 shutout of No. 23 USF and took down UCF, 45-24, in the St. Petersburg Bowl to finish off a 9-4 season.

In 2011, Rutgers had its third nine-win season under Schiano, tying Burns for the most in program history. The Scarlet Knights defeated Iowa State, 27-13, in the Pinstripe Bowl for the fifth consecutive bowl win.

Schiano has coached the leading rusher, passer and receiver by yards in Rutgers football history, sending all to the NFL. Rice finished with 4,926 rushing yards, 1,705 more than second place, with 49 touchdowns. He holds the top two spots on the RU single-game rushing leaderboard with a high of 280 in the 2008 International Bowl. Teel was a three-year starter and is the only signal caller in school history to lead the Scarlet Knights to three bowl victories. Throwing for 9,398 yards overall, he still owns single-game school records for passing yards (447) and touchdowns (7) in Rutgers' 63-14 victory over Louisville in 2008. Britt was a primary target for Teel, recording 3,403 receiving yards. He once had five consecutive games with over 100 yards and totaled 14 such outings, both school standards.

Schiano has also turned special teams into a game-changing force for the Scarlet Knights. RU has blocked 76 kicks to rank among the nation's leaders, while scoring 66 defensive/special teams touchdowns, including 15 since 2020. PK Jeremy Ito shattered the school record with 80 career field goals and earned All-America status, with Korsak also achieving national accolades in helping RU set the NCAA record for net punt average (45.25) in 2021 and leading the country in punt defense with minus 11 return yards against on the way to winning the Ray Guy Award in 2022. In 2023, Patel logged the most accurate field goal season in program history with 15-of-18 connections (83.3 percent) and followed that by setting the school record with 18 consecutive makes from 2024-25.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

While producing victories at a rate unprecedented in the program's history, Rutgers football is equally committed to succeeding in the classroom. In 2026, the Scarlet Knights led all FBS programs with 21 named to the National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society, which honors combined academic and athletic success. In 2010, Rutgers ranked first in the nation in Academic Progress Rate. The team followed that up with the nation's No. 2 ranking in 2011. The program was the lone state university to be ranked in the top 10 percent nationally in APR during each of Schiano's last five seasons of his first term.

DB Nate Jones became the program's first two-time CoSIDA Academic All-America selection (2002-03) and was a member of the National Football Foundation/College Football Hall of Fame National Scholar Class of 2003, one of just eight FBS players honored. In addition, LB Brandon Renkart earned CoSIDA Academic All-America status in 2007, while FB Brian Leonard received the prestigious Draddy Trophy, recognized as the "Academic Heisman," in 2006. Both RB Antwan Raymond and P Jakob Anderson were recognized on the 2025 College Sports Communicators Academic All-District Team.

The emphasis on academics continued with a program-record 65 student-athletes named to the Academic All-Big Ten list in 2025, 46 honorees in 2020, 57 in 2021, 41 in 2022, 51 in 2023 and 50 in 2024, including 49 earning distinguished status over that span (3.7 GPA or better). The program recorded the highest GPA (3.43) in team history for the second consecutive semester during the fall of 2025.

KNIGHTS IN THE NFL

Owning five years of NFL sideline experience, including two as the head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2012-13), Schiano has mentored 118 Scarlet Knights who went on to sign NFL contracts. That includes first-round picks in WR Kenny Britt (2009), OL Anthony Davis (2010) and DB Devin McCourty (2010). Rutgers had never had a player taken in the first round before Britt went 30th overall to the Tennessee Titans. Davis' selection at No. 11 by the San Francisco 49ers marked the highest draftee in school history. McCourty, who went 27th to the New England Patriots, won three rings in five trips to the Super Bowl during his illustrious professional career.

The pipeline continued in 2026 as QB Athan Kaliakmanis (Commanders) was taken to make it five straight years RU has had at least one NFL Draft pick, matching a program record also done from 1981-85. In 2025, DB Robert Longerbeam (Ravens), DL Kyonte Hamilton (Texans) and RB Kyle Monangai (Bears) all were selected in the NFL Draft, the most RU selections since 2013. Monangai emerged with 173 rushing yards in his first pro start, the eighth best rushing performance in the league overall and best by a rookie in 2025. Max Melton went off the board in 2024, being drafted in the second round (pick 43) by the Arizona Cardinals, the highest RU pick since 2010. The cornerback was named the Cardinals' Defensive Rookie of the Year by Sports Illustrated.

Both Bo Melton (Seahawks) and RB Isiah Pacheco (Chiefs) were drafted in 2022, with Pacheco emerging as one of the best stories in the NFL with 830 rushing yards, five touchdowns and a victory in Super Bowl LVII as a rookie. He followed that with another championship to cap the 2023 season in becoming the first starting running back to win consecutive Super Bowls during his first two years in the league. Super Bowl LVIII saw Pacheco face off against DB Logan Ryan (49ers), as 19 former RU players coached by Schiano have reached the big game, with 13 earning rings. In 2023, the Jacksonville Jaguars took DB Christian Braswell and six others signed contracts. Seventeen more were signed over the past three years.

Overall, 21 Scarlet Knights who played for Schiano at Rutgers entered 2026 training camp active on NFL rosters: DB Tre Avery, TE Shawn Bowman, DB Christian Braswell, FB Michael Burton, LS Andrew DePaola, TE Kenny Fletcher Jr., DL Kyonte Hamilton, DT Isaiah Iton, DB Christian Izien, WR JaQuae Jackson, QB Athan Kaliakmanis, DB Robert Longerbeam, DB Cam Miller, WR Bo Melton, DB Max Melton, RB Kyle Monangai, DL Eric O'Neill, RB Isiah Pacheco, OL Hollin Pierce, DB Eric Rogers and WR DT Sheffield.

PRIOR SUCCESS

Schiano returned to the sidelines in 2016 as the associate head coach and defensive coordinator, also coaching safeties, at Ohio State. He coached 10 players who were NFL Draft picks, five of whom were first-round selections during his three seasons. There were three first-round picks from the secondary in the 2017 NFL Draft: S Malik Hooker (Colts), CB Gareon Conley (Raiders) and CB Marshon Lattimore (Saints). Hooker, a unanimous All-America pick in 2016, was first nationally with three pick-sixes and third with seven interceptions that season. The Buckeyes went 36-5 in Schiano's three years as defensive coordinator and 24-3 against Big Ten opponents. That led to two Big Ten titles, plus wins in the 2017 Cotton Bowl and 2019 Rose Bowl. In addition, OSU was No. 6 nationally in total defense under Schiano in 2016 when advancing to the College Football Playoff semifinals. The Buckeyes were one of just three programs to rank in the top 10 in total defense in both 2016 and 2017. Schiano was the No. 2 recruiter in the nation by 247Sports and CBSSports.com for the 2018 signing class.

Schiano served as the defensive coordinator at Miami in 1999 and 2000 before becoming the Rutgers head coach. The Hurricanes posted a 20-5 record during that time, including an 11-1 mark, the No. 2 national ranking and a Sugar Bowl win in 2000. That defense finished fifth nationally in scoring defense (15.5) after ranking 12th in the category the year before (17.2). Following the 2000 season, LB Dan Morgan, who was the 11th overall pick in the NFL Draft, became the first player in college football history to win the Butkus Award (top linebacker), Nagurski Award (college defensive player of the year) and Bednarik Award (top defensive player) in the same year, in addition to being a consensus First Team All-America selection and the Big East Defensive Player of the Year. S Ed Reed was also a consensus First Team All-America honoree in 2000 and would later earn a spot in both the College Football Hall of Fame and Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Prior to his assignment in Miami, Schiano spent three seasons in the NFL with the Chicago Bears (1996-98). The 1997 team placed first in the NFC in third down defense (31.7 percent), while the 1996 squad climbed from 27th in the NFL to 11th in fewest yards allowed.

Schiano was the defensive backfield coach at Penn State from 1991-95 after working as a graduate assistant in 1990. The Nittany Lions picked up 58 wins throughout those years and made six bowl appearances. The 1994 PSU team went 12-0 (8-0 Big Ten) and finished No. 2 in the national rankings after beating Oregon in the Rose Bowl. Schiano previously was a graduate assistant at Rutgers in 1989, beginning his coaching career as an assistant at his alma mater, Ramapo High School, the year before.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

Schiano was a three-year letterwinner at linebacker for Bucknell (1985-87). He was named to the Sporting News All-America Preseason Team in 1987. He served as a team captain his senior year after leading the team with 114 tackles as a junior to earn All-Patriot League honors.

KIRK CIARROCCA

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS

PERSONAL
Hometown: Lewisberry, Pa.
Alma Mater: Temple, 1990
Wife: Kim
Children: Daughter, Colby; Son, Cade

Kirk Ciarrocca is in his fourth season back as Rutgers' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2026. Ciarrocca, who has over 30 years of coaching experience (22 as an offensive coordinator), previously served on head coach Greg Schiano's staff for three seasons, winning two bowl games from 2008-10. He has been selected as a semifinalist for the Broyles Award and coached 29 players who had their name called in the NFL Draft (six in the first round). Ciarrocca has mentored a first or second team All-Big Ten running back each of the past four seasons, as the Scarlet Knights are the only power conference program to feature a 1,200-yard rusher each of the past three seasons. In 2025, the RU offense produced three All-America selections.

COACHING HISTORY

2023-present: Rutgers (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks)
2022: Minnesota (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks)
2021: West Virginia (offensive analyst)
2020: Penn State (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks)
2017-19: Minnesota (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks)
2013-16: Western Michigan (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks)
2012: Delaware (running backs)
2011: Richmond (quarterbacks)
2009-10: Rutgers (co-offensive coordinator/quarterbacks)
2008: Rutgers (wide receivers)
2002-07: Delaware (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks)
2000-01: Penn (wide receivers)
1996-99: Princeton (wide receivers)
1994-95: Western Conn. State (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks/wide receivers)
1993: Delaware Valley (passing game coordinator/wide receivers)
1992: Western Connecticut State (passing game coordinator/wide receivers)
1990-91: Temple (graduate assistant)

RUTGERS

• Ciarrocca, a nominee for the 2025 Broyles Award as one of the nation's top assistant coaches, helped Rutgers average 407.1 yards of total offense and 389.1 in Big Ten play, the team's best marks in a season since joining the league. The Scarlet Knights passed for 266.1 yards per game to place third in the Big Ten for the program's best placement, also ranking ninth nationally in fewest turnovers lost (9) and 13th in time of possession (32:31) and yards per completion (13.7). The 28.7 points per game marked the second most in the Big Ten era, while the unit set a program record with 23.2 first downs per game and finished fifth in the school record book in total offense (4,885 yards).
• The Scarlet Knights had a 3,000-yard passer (QB Athan Kaliakmanis), 1,000-yard rusher (RB Antwan Raymond) and 1,000-yard receiver (WR KJ Duff) for the second time in program history as one of five teams from the Power Four and two from the Big Ten to achieve the feat. By yards per game, RU owned the second-leading passer (Kaliakmanis, 260.3) and third-leading rusher (Raymond, 103.4) and receiver (Duff, 90.3) in the Big Ten. Duff and Raymond, who were both Second Team All-Big Ten honorees, joined OL Kwabena Asamoah as All-America selections.
• Kaliakmanis was selected in the seventh round of the 2026 NFL Draft by the Commanders, the first RU quarterback to be drafted since 2009. TE Kenny Fletcher Jr. and WR DT Sheffield also signed NFL contracts.
• After two seasons as starting quarterback (2024-25), Kaliakmanis finished ranked seventh in program history in career passing yards (5,820), passing completions (442), passing attempts (763), passing touchdowns (38) and total offense (6,045). Generating two of the top seven passing seasons by yards, he is one of three quarterbacks in Rutgers history to throw for 3,000 yards in a season, compile multiple seasons of at least 200 completions and reach 20 passing touchdowns in a season.
• In helping the Scarlet Knights to a second consecutive winning season and bowl berth in 2024, Rutgers averaged 28.9 points per game, the team's best mark in the Big Ten era and most since 2008. The 376 points scored overall and 4,975 yards of total offense both ranked fourth in program history, while the 293 first downs were second. The 175.3 rushing yards per game ranked third in the Big Ten for the team's best placement since joining the league. In addition, the Scarlet Knights converted on third down at a clip of 44 percent, the first time reaching 40 percent since 2008 and best percentage since 2007, while ranking third nationally with just nine turnovers lost.
• RB Kyle Monangai, a draft pick of the Chicago Bears, became the first Scarlet Knight to earn First Team All-Big Ten on offense in both the coaches and media votes after rushing for 1,279 yards, second most in the conference. Named Fourth Team All-America by Phil Steele, he finished with the second most career rushing yards (3,221) in program history and ranks third with 14 100-yard rushing games, seventh with 3,473 all-purpose yards and seventh with 27 rushing touchdowns. Overall, the running back position group had no fumbles for the season, as Raymond scored eight rushing touchdowns, the most in a season for a Rutgers true freshman in program history and second most among Power Four true freshmen.
• The offensive line earned a spot on the Joe Moore Award Midseason Honor Roll for the first time.

TRAVIS JOHANSEN

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

PERSONAL
Hometown: Blaine, Minn.
Alma Mater: Concordia, St. Paul (2006)
Wife: Natalie
Children: Daughters, Laila and Layne; Son, Tate

Travis Johansen is in his first season as Rutgers' defensive coordinator in 2026. Leading South Dakota to the FCS Playoffs quarterfinals in his first season as head coach in 2025 and previously winning a national championship at Grand View, the Minnesota native has directed six top-10 defenses in bringing 14 years of defensive coordinator experience to New Jersey. Johansen has produced 16 defensive players who have gone on to be drafted in the NFL, signed as a free agent or received camp invites in his coaching career. That includes 10 pros from South Dakota, plus three from both of his stops at Grand View and Concordia, St. Paul. In the 2024 NFL Draft, defensive back Myles Harden was selected by the Cleveland Browns in the seventh round. He joined defensive back Mike Reid (Carolina Panthers) and linebacker Jack Cochrane (Kansas City Chiefs), who is a two-time Super Bowl champion, as active players during the 2025 season.

COACHING HISTORY

2026-present: Rutgers (defensive coordinator)
2025: South Dakota (head coach)
2019-21: South Dakota (defensive coordinator)
2013-18: Grand View (defensive coordinator/secondary)
2011-12: Concordia, St. Paul (defensive coordinator)
2006-10: Concordia, St. Paul (defensive assistant)

SOUTH DAKOTA

• Taking over as South Dakota head coach in 2025 after six seasons on staff as defensive coordinator (2019-24), including three as associate head coach (2022-24), Johansen led the Coyotes to a 10-5 mark and a second-place finish in the Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) with a 6-2 league record. That featured three straight victories over ranked opponents to end the regular season and a final ranking of No. 9 (Stats Perform). He became the first coach in program history to win double-digit games in their first season, as USD earned an FCS Playoffs berth, shutting out Mercer, 47-0, to reach the quarterfinals for the third consecutive season – a program first.
• Cornerback Mikey Munn was named Second Team All-America by FCS Football Central in his first season as a starter after leading the conference and ranking fourth in the FCS with five interceptions, adding 10 pass breakups, while cornerback RJ Stewart was selected as a Freshman All-American with 10 passes defended (seven breakups, three interceptions). The defense placed 22nd nationally with 12 interceptions overall. Offensively, First Team All-America running back L.J. Phillips Jr. rushed for 1,921 yards to lead all FCS players.
• In his previous two seasons as defensive coordinator (2023-24), Johansen led a unit that ranked inside the top 10 in scoring defense and top 25 in total defense each year, as the Coyotes made consecutive trips to the FCS Playoffs quarterfinals.
• In leading the USD defense to new heights, he coached a pair of MVFC Defensive Players of the Year in Brock Mogensen (2023) and Mi'Quise Grace (2024), who were also Buck Buchanan Award finalists, an honor presented to the best defensive player at the FCS level. Overall, he mentored seven All-America picks and seven First Team All-MVFC performers as coordinator with the Coyotes.
• The 2024 season saw Johansen lead a unit that sat top 10 in scoring defense (seventh, 17.6) and top 20 in rushing defense (17th, 116.1). The Coyotes put together one of the best seasons in school history with an 11-3 (7-1 MVFC) record with a share of the MVFC title and a trip to the FCS Playoffs semifinals, both program firsts. The MVFC honors saw seven all-conference defensive honorees for USD, including three First Team All-MVFC performers with Nick Gaes (10) and Grace (9.5) finishing 1-2 in the league in total sacks.
• The defense played a key role in the Coyotes' breakthrough season in 2023. The campaign featured a team ranked No. 4 in the final FCS rankings (STATS Perform and AFCA), picking up the first 10-win season in the DI FCS era and first since 1986 as a program, the most MVFC wins in a season and the first trip to the FCS Playoffs quarterfinal round. The defense was instrumental in the team's success, being ranked in the top 25 in the FCS in three defensive categories: No. 8 in scoring defense (17.7), No. 18 in passing defense (180.8) and No. 25 in total defense (323.3).
• The 2021 season proved to be a breakout season for the Coyote defense under Johansen, in just his second full season (non-COVID year). That season saw USD make the program's first MVFC Championship Game appearance, as well as hosting their first home FCS Playoffs game. South Dakota finished 7-5 with the defense ranking inside the top 25 in three categories, including No. 21 in sacks per game (2.75), No. 23 in scoring defense (20.7) and No. 24 in rushing defense (120.9).

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

• Johansen spent six seasons (2013-18) as defensive coordinator at Grand View (Iowa), where the Vikings compiled a 61-11 record with five Heart of America Athletic Conference championships, six NAIA playoff appearances and the 2013 NAIA national title following a 14-0 campaign. Grand View finished inside the top 15 of the NAIA national rankings in all six seasons.
• During his stop in Des Moines, Johansen was a Heart of America Assistant Coach of the Year finalist in each of his last two seasons and was a national coordinator of the year finalist in 2015. He was featured in a Sports Illustrated article, "The Search to Save NFL Defenses," in November 2018. Grand View was ranked as one of the top NAIA defenses throughout Johansen's stay there, producing seven defensive All-Americans.

DENNIS DOTTIN-CARTER

DEFENSIVE LINE

Dennis Dottin-Carter is in his first season as Rutgers' defensive line coach in 2026. A native of Massachusetts with an extensive Northeast background, he spent the last three seasons in the Big Ten with Minnesota and brings 18 years of coaching experience overall to New Jersey, including as interim head coach at Delaware. Dottin-Carter, an all-conference defensive end during his playing days, has developed multiple NFL draft picks and All-Americans.

2009: Maine (fullbacks/tight ends)
2008: Maine (tight ends)

MINNESOTA

• Taking over as defensive line coach for the Golden Gophers in 2025, Dottin-Carter was part of a unit that led the Big Ten and ranked sixth nationally with three sacks per game. That included three games with at least seven sacks and a high of nine in the win over Nebraska. Defensive lineman Anthony Smith led the conference with 12.5 sacks, while placing second with 17.5 tackles-for-loss overall on the way to earning First Team All-Big Ten honors.
• Dottin-Carter served as senior defensive analyst the previous two seasons (2023-24) with a focus on the Minnesota defensive line. The Golden Gophers won eight games in 2024, capped by a victory over Virginia Tech in the Duke's Mayo Bowl, as the defense ranked fourth nationally in first downs defense (208), fifth in total defense (285.7), ninth in scoring defense (16.9) and 12th in rushing defense (109.6). The defensive line broke up 14 passes on the season. The defense saw an increase of 19 tackles-for-loss upon his arrival in 2023, ending the season with a win over Bowling Green in the Quick Lane Bowl.

• Dottin-Carter worked as Yale's assistant head coach, co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach for the 2022 Ivy League champions. Defensive linemen Reid Nickerson and Clay Patterson earned Second Team All-Ivy honors under Dottin-Carter's tutelage, while the defense finished fifth in the country in scoring defense and seventh in rushing defense.
• Dottin-Carter previously spent five seasons (2017-21) as Connecticut's defensive line coach. Defensive lineman Travis Jones was drafted in the third round by the Baltimore Ravens and earned Second Team All-America by Pro Football Focus. During the 2016 season, Dottin-Carter coached Foley Fatukasi, brother of former Scarlet Knight Olakunle Fatukasi, to All-American Athletic Conference honors before being selected in the sixth round of the 2018 NFL Draft by the New York Jets.
• Before UConn, Dottin-Carter coached four seasons at Delaware (2013-16), where he served as the Blue Hens' defensive line coach for one year before being promoted to co-defensive coordinator in 2014. He was named interim head coach for the final five games of the 2016 season.
• At Delaware, Dottin-Carter oversaw the development of 2013 All-America selection Zach Kerr, who signed with the Indianapolis Colts and spent eight seasons in the NFL. Defensive lineman Bilal Nichols was drafted in the fifth round by the Chicago Bears in 2018 after claiming Third Team All-America status.
• Dottin-Carter took part in the Bill Walsh NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship with the Atlanta Falcons in 2015 and in 2016 with the Seattle Seahawks.
• Dottin-Carter began his coaching career at his alma mater, Maine, in 2008 as tight ends coach. He went on to coach fullbacks, running backs, defensive line and special teams in his five-year tenure (2008-12) with the Black Bears.
• With Dottin-Carter as defensive line coach, Maine's 2012 defense led the Colonial Athletic Conference in scoring defense and ranked 16th nationally. Defensive end Mike Cole led the CAA with seven sacks in just five games and would go on to become the school's all-time leader in sacks. The 2011 Maine team reached the quarterfinals of the FCS Playoffs and boasted the top passing defense in the CAA, while Cole was tabbed All-CAA after leading the conference in sacks.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

• A native of Cambridge, Massachusetts, Dottin-Carter earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology and physical education from Maine following a standout playing career in which he led the Black Bears to Atlantic 10 titles in 2001 and 2002. He was a First Team All-Atlantic 10 selection as a defensive end in 2002 and a second-team pick in 2003.

JOE WOODLEY

RUSH ENDS

Joe Woodley is in his first season as the Scarlet Knights' rush ends coach in 2026. The Iowa native brings seven seasons of experience as a head coach, including winning a national championship at Grand View and securing an FCS Playoffs berth in 2025 with Drake, and has previously coached with Scarlet Knight defensive coordinator Travis Johansen. He was listed among ESPN's "30 coaches who will define the next decade of college football" in 2024.

PERSONAL
Hometown: Clive, Iowa
Alma Mater: Iowa State, 2004
Wife: Jen
Children: Daughters, Anna, Elly and Emma

COACHING HISTORY

2026-present: Rutgers (rush ends)
2025: Drake (head coach)
2019-24: Grand View (head coach)
2018: Grand View (offensive coordinator)
2008-17: Grand View (defensive coordinator)
2006-07: Johnston HS (defensive line/linebackers)
2004-05: St. Ambrose (defensive backs/linebackers)

DRAKE

• Woodley took over Drake as head coach in 2025 and guided the program to an outright Pioneer Football League (PFL) championship with a 7-1 conference record, 8-4 overall. The Bulldogs earned the third FCS Playoffs bid in program history, facing Johansen's South Dakota Coyotes in the first round. Fourteen players were selected all-conference for Drake, including the league's Defensive Player of the Year in linebacker Sean Allison, who was also named Third Team All-America, and Offensive Freshman of the Year and Freshman All-America pick in running back Nick Herman.
• The Bulldog defense held PFL opponents to 11.0 points per game and 287.6 yards per game, ranking first and second in the league. Nationally, the unit ranked sixth in scoring defense (17.7), sixth in red zone defense (.714), 14th in total defense (323.3), 22nd in sacks (2.5), 26th in passing defense (192.3), 27th in rushing defense (131.0) and 27th in first downs defense (215). In the classroom, the program saw 69 student-athletes named to the PFL Academic Honor Roll.

GRAND VIEW

• Woodley spent 17 seasons (2008-24) at Grand View on both sides of the ball, serving as head coach for the final six years after replacing his father, Mike. As head coach (2019-24), Woodley led the Vikings to the NAIA quarterfinals twice, the NAIA semifinals twice and two NAIA title games, winning the 2024 national championship with a 14-0 record. Overall, he amassed a record of 72-5 and never lost a regular season game.
• In 2024, Woodley was one of 30 identified by ESPN as "coaches who will define the next decade of college football." He was one of only four non-FBS coaches selected and the only coach from the NAIA.
• Individually, Woodley was named North Division Conference Head Coach of the Year in 2019, 2020, 2022, 2023 and 2024. As offensive coordinator in 2018, Woodley's unit ranked in the top 25 nationally in points per game, rushing yards per game and yards per game. Prior to that, Woodley coordinated a top-10 defense nine times and was named the 2009 MSFA Midwest Assistant Coach of the Year and 2013 Football Scoop Coordinator of the Year.
• He coached more than 60 All-Heart of America Athletic Conference selections, seven AFCA All-Americans, six HAAC Players of the Year, five HAAC Offensive Players of the Year and four HAAC Defensive Players of the Year. In addition, Woodley helped quarterback Jackson Waring earn the 2024 NAIA Football Player of the Year, the division's equivalent of the Heisman Trophy.
• Woodley was an assistant coach with Johansen for the 2013 Vikings team that capped an undefeated season with the school's first football national title. The two were both on the GV staff together from 2013-18.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

• Prior to his time at Grand View, Woodley served as the defensive line and linebackers coach at Johnston High School (2006-07) in Iowa under his brother, Brian. Before coaching the Dragons, he spent two seasons coaching the same positions at St. Ambrose University (2004-05) and helped the Fighting Bees to a 15-5 record and top 10 national defensive rating during his tenure.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

• Woodley was a standout prep player at Valley High School, where he graduated in 1999. The linebacker was named first team all-state and Central Iowa Metro League Player of the Year. Woodley went on to compete at Iowa State, captained the Cyclones to three bowl appearances from 1999-2003 and earned a bachelor's degree in liberal studies with an exercise science emphasis in 2004.

ERIC FINNEY

CORNERBACKS

Eric Finney is in his first season as Rutgers' cornerbacks coach in 2026. Reuniting with Scarlet Knight defensive coordinator Travis Johansen after being on the same South Dakota staff in 2025, the California native coached two All-America picks this past season. He played in the Big Ten for Illinois and has previous coaching experience at Cincinnati, Iowa Western CC and Concordia, Chicago.

PERSONAL
Hometown: Riverside, Calif.
Alma Mater: Illinois, 2015

COACHING HISTORY

2026-present: Rutgers (cornerbacks)
2025: South Dakota (cornerbacks)
2024: Cincinnati (assistant defensive backs)
2018-23: Iowa Western CC (pass game coord./defensive backs/special teams coord.)
2016-17: Concordia, Chicago (graduate assistant)

SOUTH DAKOTA

• Working under Johansen, Finney helped the Coyotes to a 10-5 mark and a second-place finish in the Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) with a 6-2 league record in 2025. That featured three straight victories over ranked opponents to end the regular season and a final ranking of No. 9 (Stats Perform). USD earned an FCS Playoffs berth, shutting out Mercer, 47-0, to reach the quarterfinals.
• Cornerback Mikey Munn was named Second Team All-America by FCS Football Central in his first season as a starter after leading the conference and ranking fourth in the FCS with five interceptions, adding 10 pass breakups, while cornerback RJ Stewart was selected as a Freshman All-American with 10 passes defended (seven breakups, three interceptions). The defense placed 22nd nationally with 12 interceptions overall.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

• While at Cincinnati in 2024, Finney assisted with the defensive backs in a quality control role. That included supporting overall operations and in positional meetings for the Bearcat defensive backs.
• Finney spent six seasons at Iowa Western Community College (2018-23) where he was the defensive backs coach and special teams coordinator. He served as the pass game coordinator for the Reivers and was a part of two national championships and three title game appearances.
• Finney began his career as a graduate assistant at Concordia University, Chicago (2016-17), coaching two all-conference selections and helping to orchestrate the top pass defense in the NACC in 2016 (193.9).

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

• Finney played three seasons at Illinois (2013-15), seeing action in 35 career games with 70 tackles. The two-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree served as a captain as a senior in 2015. That season saw him make eight starts in the secondary and record 35 tackles with 7.5 tackles-for-loss and three pass breakups.
• Finney earned his bachelor's degree in human development and family studies from the University of Illinois in 2015. In 2017, he earned his master's degree in sports leadership from Concordia University, Chicago.

ADAM COX

SAFETIES

Adam Cox is in his first season as the Scarlet Knights' safeties coach in 2026. On the same staff as RU rush ends coach Joe Woodley coordinating a top-10 defense for Drake in 2025, the Illinois native was a letterwinner at Iowa and owns a combined three appearances in the Big Ten Football Championship Game as a player and coach. He also brings experience from Indiana State and Central Michigan.

DRAKE

• Helping Drake to an outright Pioneer Football League (PFL) championship this past season, Cox was part of a team that won eight games and secured a bid to the FCS Playoffs. The Bulldog defense held PFL opponents to 11.0 points per game and 287.6 yards per game, ranking first and second in the league. Nationally, the unit ranked sixth in scoring defense (17.7), sixth in red zone defense (.714), 14th in total defense (323.3), 22nd in sacks (2.5), 26th in passing defense (192.3), 27th in rushing defense (131.0) and 27th in first downs defense (215).
• Linebacker Sean Allison was named PFL Defensive Player of the Year and Third Team All-America after leading the league and ranking sixth at the FCS level with 10.5 tackles per game.

IOWA

• Prior to serving as safeties coach for Indiana State in 2024, where he mentored honorable mention all-conference safety Maddix Blackwell, Cox spent three seasons (2021-23) at his alma mater, Iowa, on Broyles Award winner Phil Parker's defensive staff.
• In 2023, the Hawkeyes won 10 games to capture the Big Ten West Division for the second time in three years and make the Big Ten Football Championship Game. UI, ranked No. 24 in the final AP Poll, placed fourth nationally in scoring defense (14.8) and passing efficiency defense (102.1), fifth in passing yards per game (170.7) and seventh in total defense (282.5) that season. Defensive back Cooper DeJean was honored as the Tatum-Woodson Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year. DeJean was also recognized as a unanimous consensus All-American, became a finalist for the Nagurski Trophy and taken in the second round of the 2024 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles.
• Iowa's defense led the way in 2022, winning eight games, including five of their final six. The unit finished in the top 12 in the nation in scoring defense (second), total defense (second), pass efficiency defense (fourth), passing yards per game (sixth), first down defense (10th), third down defense (11th) and rushing defense (12th).
• The Hawkeyes won 10 games in 2021, claiming the Big Ten West Division and advancing to the conference championship game. Iowa concluded the season with an appearance in the Citrus Bowl and ranked 23rd in the final national polls (AP and AFCA Coaches). Defensive back Riley Moss was honored as the Tatum-Woodson Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year. Moss, defensive back Dane Belton and linebacker Jack Campbell were all voted First Team All-Big Ten and later picked in the NFL Draft.
• Iowa set a school record and led the nation with 25 interceptions in 2021. The defense ranked among national leaders in takeaways (30, third), defensive touchdowns scored (four, seventh), pass efficiency defense (110.5, sixth), turnover margin (0.8, 11th), rushing defense (114.4, 13th), scoring defense (19.2, 13th) and total defense (328.8, 18th).

CENTRAL MICHIGAN

• Cox served as a graduate assistant coach at Central Michigan for three seasons. He worked with the defensive secondary and special teams in 2018 and 2019 before coaching linebackers in 2020. The Chippewas won the MAC West Division in 2019 and competed in the New Mexico Bowl.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

• As a fullback for the Hawkeyes, Cox saw action in all 14 games in 2015 as the team posted a 12-2 record and won the Big Ten West Division with appearances in the Big Ten Football Championship Game and Rose Bowl. Cox was a member of the Leadership Group as a senior in 2015 and earned Academic All-Big Ten honors. Cox joined the program as a walk-on after attending Stillman Valley (Illinois) High School and was put on scholarship prior to the 2014 season. He saw action in all 13 games in 2013, with three starts.
• A native of Stillman Valley, Illinois, Cox earned his bachelor's degree from Iowa in health and human physiology in 2015.

ELIJAH HODGE

LINEBACKERS

Elijah Hodge is in his first season as Rutgers' linebackers coach in 2026. Working with Scarlet Knight defensive coordinator Travis Johansen at South Dakota from 2022-24, which featured two trips to the FCS Playoffs quarterfinals, he played in the Big Ten at Wisconsin and brings administrative leadership experience to New Jersey. Hodge, who was born in the Virgin Islands and attended Dillard High School in South Florida, coached two players who reached the NFL. Following the 2024 season, linebacker Brock Mogensen signed as an undrafted free agent with the Dallas Cowboys, while Stephen Hillis earned a rookie minicamp invite with the Buffalo Bills.

2018-20: Roxbury Prep Charter (head coach)

• The 2024 campaign featured a South Dakota defense that sat top 10 in scoring defense (seventh, 17.6) and top 20 in rushing defense (17th, 116.1). The Coyotes put together one of the best seasons in school history with an 11-3 (7-1 MVFC) record with a share of the MVFC title and a trip to the FCS Playoffs semifinals, both program firsts. Linebacker Gary Bryant III posted a team-high 103 tackles.
• After recording 113 stops during the 2023 season, Mogensen earned MVFC Defensive Player of the Year, first team All-America by multiple outlets and was a finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award, an honor presented to the best defensive player at the FCS level. The team ranked No. 4 in the final FCS rankings (STATS Perform and AFCA), picking up the first 10-win season in the DI FCS era and first since 1986 as a program, the most MVFC wins in a season and the first trip to the FCS Playoffs quarterfinal round. The defense ranked in the top 25 in the FCS in three defensive categories: No. 8 in scoring defense (17.7), No. 18 in passing defense (180.8) and No. 25 in total defense (323.3).

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

• Hodge's stop at South Dakota marked his collegiate coaching debut following a variety of previous experiences. That included helping build the varsity team at Roxbury Prep Charter in the Boston, Massachusetts, area in 2018. He led the team to the playoffs in back-to-back seasons and won the first playoff game in school history.
• A number of administrative leadership roles led him to the Boston area. Hodge was the coordinator of retention and support for Phoenix Charter Academy in 2012, the dean of culture and climate at Muriel Snowden International School in 2013 and was dean of students at Roxbury Prep from 2017-20. Hodge earned his master's degree in educational leadership from Boston College in 2020.
• In early 2021, Hodge founded Linebacker Performance, which provides middle, high school and college linebackers technical training and comprehensive linebacker education. He also worked within the Sarasota County School District.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

• Hodge played linebacker for three seasons at Wisconsin (2006-08) and one at Northern Iowa (2009). As a sophomore with the Badgers, he made 11 starts and finished third on the team with 67 stops. A two-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree, Hodge graduated from Wisconsin with a bachelor's degree in sociology before playing one final season at Northern Iowa, where he finished the 2009 campaign as the Panthers' fourth-leading tackler.

CHARLIE NOONAN

STUDS

Charlie Noonan is in his first season as Rutgers' studs coach in 2026. A four-year letter-winner (2007-10), team captain and starter at defensive tackle for the Scarlet Knights, Noonan coached defensive tackles in 2025 and has been on staff since 2020.

2022: Rutgers (defensive assistant/linebackers)
2021: Rutgers (defensive assistant/defensive line)
2020: Rutgers (interim defensive line)
2019: Lehigh (linebackers/run defensive coordinator)
2015-18: Holy Cross (defensive line)
2013-14: Rutgers (graduate assistant)
2012: Thiel (defensive assistant)
2011: Haverford School (volunteer defensive assistant)

RUTGERS

• Noonan took over as studs coach in 2026.
• Noonan served as defensive tackles coach in 2025 as DL Zaire Angoy developed into a starter after winning the Douglas A. Smith Second Effort Award as the most improved defensive player, while DL Jordan Thompson moved inside and had multiple stops in eight games.
• As assistant linebackers coach in 2024, Noonan worked with Dariel Djabome, who earned Third Team All-Big Ten accolades. Djabome ranked fifth in the league with 8.1 tackles per game, totaled 105 stops overall, the fifth most in a season in the head coach Greg Schiano era, and led RU with 7.5 tackles-for-loss. Tyreem Powell also merited honorable mention All-Big Ten honors at linebacker, earned an invitation to the NFL Scouting Combine and signed with the New Orleans Saints.
• Noonan joined Schiano's initial staff when he returned in 2020 and worked as interim defensive line coach that season. The Scarlet Knights led the Big Ten and ranked No. 11 nationally with 7.8 tackles-for-loss per game and posted three contests in double figures with a season-high 13 coming in a win at Maryland. Rutgers posted 21 sacks, which are the most for the team in a Big Ten season. DL Michael Dwumfour signed with the New York Jets after the season.
• Working with the defensive line in 2021, Rutgers held opponents to 52-for-162 on third down (32.1 percent), the 11th best percentage nationally following the regular season. The Scarlet Knights also finished the season holding opponents to under 300 yards of total offense on six different occasions.
• Noonan shifted to focusing on linebackers in 2022, as the defense improved by allowing 46.7 less yards per game compared to 2021, 28.1 less passing yards and 18.6 less rushing yards. LB Deion Jennings earned honorable mention All-Big Ten and collected the Homer Hazel Award as the team's most valuable player after posting 91 tackles with 8.5 for loss and six pass breakups.
• The 2023 season was capped with a victory over Miami in the Pinstripe Bowl, as the defense ranked 16th nationally in total defense (313.5), posting its best mark and ranking for a season in the Big Ten era. In addition, Rutgers ranked 10th nationally in passing defense (176.3) and 15th in red zone defense (75.6 percent), posting 11 stops, while its rushing defense mark of 137.2 was the best for the team in the Big Ten era. Jennings earned honorable mention All-Big Ten status and signed with the Baltimore Ravens.
• Noonan was previously a graduate assistant for Rutgers (2013-14) during the program's transition to the Big Ten. He mentored all-conference selection Kemoko Turay, who was named a Freshman All-American after leading the team with 7.5 sacks during the 2014 campaign. In 2013, RU allowed just 100.8 rushing yards per game, the fourth best mark in the country.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

• Noonan spent four seasons (2015-18) as defensive line coach at Holy Cross. During his first season with the Crusaders, Noonan coached DE Dewayne Cameron, who earned First Team All-Patriot League honors twice, as well as a spot on the All-New England First Team. In 2016, DE Ryan Smith led the Patriot League with 12 sacks. Then in 2017, his defense posted 23 sacks and forced 12 fumbles, while DL Teddy Capsis took home First Team All-Patriot League accolades in 2018.
• Noonan then served as linebackers coach and run defensive coordinator for Lehigh in 2019. The team produced the top rushing defense in the Patriot League that season. LB Keith Woetzel claimed Second Team All-America and First Team All-Patriot League honors for the Mountain Hawks, as he led the conference in tackles (118), sacks (12) and tackles-for-loss (17.5).
• Noonan worked at Division III Thiel College (Pa.) in 2012. Competing in the Presidents' Athletic Conference, Thiel's defense finished its season first in the league in both sacks and rushing defense, while finishing in second place in tackles-for-loss and total defense.
• In 2011, Noonan served as a volunteer assistant coach at the Haverford School (Pa.), where he worked with the defense.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

• A Philadelphia native, Noonan earned a bachelor's degree in economics and a master's degree in labor and employment relations from Rutgers in 2010. Noonan served as a captain as a senior, winning both the Frank R. Burns Award and Iron Knight Award. He played in 48 career games overall, including the victories in the St. Petersburg and PapaJohns.com Bowls, totaling 72 tackles. Noonan signed with the Philadelphia Eagles as an undrafted free agent in 2011.

LUKE CARREZOLA

DEFENSIVE TACKLES

Luke Carrezola is in his third season on the Rutgers staff and first as defensive tackles coach in 2026. A native of Langhorne, Pennsylvania, he previously coached at New Hampshire and Connecticut after being a three-year starter for the Huskies and seeing professional action in the NFL and AAF. His brother, Paul, was a four-year letterwinner (2010-13) for the Scarlet Knights.

PERSONAL

COACHING HISTORY

2026-present: Rutgers (defensive tackles)
2024-25: Rutgers (assistant defensive line)
2023: New Hampshire (defensive line)
2022: Connecticut (defensive analyst)
2019-21: Connecticut (defensive line graduate assistant)

RUTGERS

• Carrezola took over as defensive tackles coach in 2026 after spending two seasons (2024-25) as assistant defensive line coach.
• DL Eric O'Neill led the team with 9.5 tackles-for-loss in 2025, while DL Farell Gnago forced a fumble late in the win at Purdue to help lead to the go-ahead field goal as time expired.
• In 2024, the Scarlet Knights posted a winning season and earned an invitation to the Rate Bowl following a three-win November. The defensive line saw DL Kyonte Hamilton and DL Aaron Lewis both earn honorable mention All-Big Ten honors. Hamilton was selected in the seventh round of the 2025 NFL Draft by Houston.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

• Carrezola spent the 2023 season as New Hampshire's defensive line coach. The Wildcats ranked No. 21 nationally in the FCS in third down defense (.333), as both DL Dylan Ruiz and DL Josiah Silver were named Second Team All-CAA.
• Spending four seasons (2019-22) on his alma mater's staff at Connecticut, he was promoted to defensive analyst in 2022 after working three seasons as a graduate assistant with the defensive line.
• The Huskies earned a bid to the 2022 Myrtle Beach Bowl, its first postseason appearance since 2015.
• DL Travis Jones, an interior lineman, was selected in the third round of the 2022 NFL Draft by Baltimore.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

• A three-year starter for Connecticut, Carrezola led the team in tackles for loss in 2015 and 2016 while helping the Huskies reach the St. Petersburg Bowl in 2015. He was named to the 2017 Football Leadership Council as a senior.
• Carrezola graduated UConn with a master's degree in sport management and a bachelor's degree in economics.
• Carrezola saw rookie minicamp action with Kansas City and Washington before playing for the Salt Lake Stallions in the Alliance of American Football (AAF) under Hall of Fame head coach Dennis Erickson.

DAMIERE SHAW

ASSOCIATE OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/RUNNING BACKS

Damiere Shaw, who was promoted to associate offensive coordinator in 2026, is in his seventh season at Rutgers and fourth as running backs coach. A Broyles Award nominee, Shaw was instrumental in the development of RB Kyle Monangai, who produced the two highest rushing seasons for RU in the Big Ten era and was drafted by the Chicago Bears. Adding in RB Antwan Raymond's Doak Walker Award semifinalist season, Rutgers is the only power conference program with a 1,200-yard rusher each of the past three years (2023-25). A native of Chester, Pennsylvania, Shaw previously coached RU wide receivers after joining the Scarlet Knights as the director of player development.

PERSONAL

2019: Fordham (wide receivers)
2017-18: Baylor (offensive quality control)
2016: Temple (wide receivers graduate assistant)
2013-15: Temple (student assistant)

RUTGERS

• Shaw was promoted to associate offensive coordinator in March 2026.
• As the only power conference program with a 1,200-yard rusher each of the past three seasons (2023-25), Shaw has coached three of the top eight rushing seasons by yards in program history. In addition, a Scarlet Knight running back has been named either first or second team All-Big Ten each of the past three years.
• Raymond won the 2025 Cornish Trophy as the most outstanding Canadian player in NCAA football plus being named as one of 10 national semifinalists for the Doak Walker National Running Back Award, Fourth Team All-America by Phil Steele, Second Team All-Big Ten and to the College Sports Communicators Academic All-District Team. Totaling 1,241 rushing yards, he ranked third in the Big Ten with 103.4 rushing yards per game, third with 15 total touchdowns, fifth with 13 rushing touchdowns and eighth with 5.1 yards per carry. That included four 100-yard games, highlighted by 240 yards on 41 carries in the win over Maryland, the most rushing yards by a Big Ten player on the season and ninth most by a player nationally in any 2025 game.
• For the season, Rutgers averaged 407.1 yards of total offense and 389.1 in Big Ten play, the team's best marks in a season since joining the league. The Scarlet Knights ranked ninth nationally in fewest turnovers lost (9) and 13th in time of possession (32:31). The 28.7 points per game marked the second most in the Big Ten era, while the unit set a program record with 23.2 first downs per game and finished fifth in the school record book in total offense (4,885 yards).
• Shaw was named a nominee for the 2024 Broyles Award as one of the top assistant coaches in the nation.
• Helping the Scarlet Knights to a second consecutive winning season and bowl berth in 2024, Rutgers averaged 28.9 points per game, the team's best mark in the Big Ten era and most since 2008. The 376 points scored overall and 4,975 yards of total offense both marked the fourth-most season totals in program history, while the 293 first downs were second. In addition, RU converted on third down at a clip of 44 percent, the first time reaching 40 percent since 2008.
• Rutgers rushed for 2,279 yards, its best total in the Big Ten era, most since 2007 and 10th highest mark for a season in program history. The 175.3 rushing yards per game ranked third in the Big Ten for the team's best placement since joining the league.
• Monangai became the first Scarlet Knight to earn First Team All-Big Ten on offense in both the coaches and media votes after rushing for 1,279 yards, second most in the conference. Later named Fourth Team All-America by Phil Steele, he finished his career with the second-most career rushing yards (3,221) in program history and left third with 14 100-yard rushing games, seventh with 3,473 all-purpose yards and seventh with 27 rushing touchdowns. He was selected in the seventh round of the 2025 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears.
• Overall, the running back position group had no fumbles for the season, as Raymond scored eight rushing touchdowns, the most in a season for a Rutgers true freshman in program history and second most among Power Four true freshmen. He totaled 457 rushing yards overall to lead all Big Ten true freshmen and rank fifth among Power Four players in his class in 2024.
• Shaw took over as running backs coach in 2023 and helped mentor Monangai to a Big Ten-best 1,262 rushing yards. The Scarlet Knights were the most improved team in the Big Ten by total offense (+24.1) on the way to securing the program's first winning season since 2014 and a victory over Miami in the Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl.
• Rutgers averaged 168.7 rushing yards per game (fifth in the Big Ten), improving by 40.5 rushing yards per game compared to 2022. That included four games with at least 250 rushing yards, matching the number of such games the previous six seasons combined (70 games). The Scarlet Knights had six games with at least 200 rushing yards, the most in a season since 2007.
• Monangai earned Second Team All-Big Ten honors after recording seven 100-yard games, including 159 versus No. 1/3 Ohio State, the second most ever for a Scarlet Knight against a ranked opponent. He graded as the top running back in the Big Ten, best in the Power Five and No. 5 nationally by Pro Football Focus, forcing 73 missed tackles to lead the conference.
• Shaw was elevated to wide receivers coach prior to spring practice in 2022.

The two previous seasons, the offensive line helped the team gain more than 2,000 rushing yards while also passing for 3,000-plus yards. The 2016 team appeared as high as No. 6 in the AP Poll.
• In 2011, the Aggies allowed just nine sacks on 537 pass attempts and ranked in the top 25 nationally in total offense (seventh), scoring offense (11th), passing offense (18th) and rushing offense (24th). From 2009-11, the Aggies ranked among the nation's top 25 teams in total offense, averaging more than 440 yards per game each season. The 2009 unit ranked No. 5 nationally at 465.8 yards per game, and the 2011 squad ranked seventh at 490.2.
• Turner developed numerous offensive linemen who would go on to play in the NFL, including first-round picks Luke Joeckel (2013 No. 2 pick by Jacksonville Jaguars), Jake Matthews (2014 No. 6 overall pick by Atlanta Falcons) and Cedric Ogbuehi (2015 No. 21 overall pick by Cincinnati Bengals). Other signees included fifth-round pick Jermaine Eluemunor (2017 by Baltimore Ravens), Jarvis Harrison (New York Jets), Patrick Lewis (Seattle Seahawks) and Ryan McCollum (Houston Texans).

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

• Most recently, Turner served as interim head coach for the Memphis Showboats of the UFL, also spending time with the New Orleans Breakers. That included coaching former Scarlet Knight wide receiver and current player development assistant Isaiah Washington.
• With Texas State in 2021, Turner saw Dalton Cooper (third team) and Kyle Hergel (honorable mention) both earn All-Sun Belt honors. That followed two seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals (2019-20), as the offense had an improved rushing attack during the last half of the season, averaging 130.1 yards and increasing the yards per rush by 1.26 yards per carry. In 2020, the unit averaged 4.1 yards per rush and compiled six 300-yard passing games.
• From 2012-13, Turner served as offensive line coach for the Miami Dolphins.
• Turner spent the 2007 season coaching the offensive line at his alma mater, Boston College, after two seasons (2005-06) at Delaware. In 2006, Turner was assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator. He also coached at Temple as the offensive line coach in 2003-04 after serving as the offensive line and run game coordinator at Harvard (2000-02).
• Turner spent one season as the offensive line coach at Louisiana Tech in 1999 after being on the staff at Northeastern from 1994-98. He coached the offensive line and tight ends in 1994-95, running backs and special teams in 1996, and the defensive line and special teams in 1997-98.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

• A Boston native, Turner was a four-year letterman as a fullback at Boston College. He served as team captain his senior season and played in three bowl games with the Eagles (Cotton, Hall of Fame and Liberty).
• After earning his bachelor's degree in sociology in 1988, Turner began his coaching career at his alma mater, Braintree High School. He spent the 1989 season in London, England, as the offensive coordinator for the Kent Rams — a British American football team. He served as an infantry officer in the United States Marine Corps from 1990-94 in Europe, the Middle East and Japan.

EDDIE ALLEN

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Eddie Allen is in his fifth season back with Rutgers football in 2026 and serves as special teams coordinator. Allen, who was also on staff in Piscataway under head coach Greg Schiano from 2005-07, has helped the Scarlet Knights lead the nation in blocked punts, set field goal records and produce a winner of the Ray Guy Award as part of five bowl appearances.

2005-06: Rutgers (player development assistant)
2004: Fort Scott Community College (wide receivers)
2003: Hofstra (offensive graduate assistant/video coordinator)

RUTGERS

• In 2025, both PK Jai Patel and P Jakob Anderson earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors. Rutgers led the nation with three punt return touchdowns, all off blocked punts, and leads the nation with 13 blocked punts since 2022.
• Rutgers won a program-best four Big Ten games in 2024 and picked up seven victories overall in the regular season for the first time in a decade. In the kicking game, Patel matched the program record by making his final 13 field goals of the season and took over possession of the standard at 18 with five more consecutive makes to start 2025. LS Austin Riggs picked up honorable mention All-Big Ten honors.
• In 2023, the Scarlet Knights compiled seven wins for the program's first winning season since 2014. On special teams, RU scored two game-changing touchdowns off blocked punts in wins over Indiana and Miami, and Patel went 15-of-18 (83.3 percent) on field goals, the most accurate season in program history.
• In 2022, the Scarlet Knights held opponents to minus 11 punt return yards, best in the nation, with just one positive return against in 75 attempts. P Adam Korsak earned the 2022 Ray Guy Award as the nation's best punter, the first on-field national award won by a Rutgers football player in program history, and claimed First Team All-America status.
• Allen spent three seasons as a member of Schiano's coaching staff at Rutgers from 2005-07, which included three trips to bowl games. He joined the Scarlet Knights' football program in 2005 as a player development assistant and worked as a graduate assistant in 2007.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

• Prior to rejoining Rutgers, Allen served as the special teams coordinator at UConn from 2018-21.
• In his first season with the Huskies in 2018, P Luke Magliozzi set the UConn single season punting record with an average of 42.94 yards per attempt. Magliozzi had 12 punts of over 50 yards and pinned 19 kicks inside the 20.
• Prior to his stint in East Hartford, Allen served as the special teams coordinator at Delaware from 2014-17. In his final season on staff, the Blue Hens tied for the top spot in the Colonial Athletic Association in net punting average with a mark of 38.8. During his time at Delaware, Allen coached two-time All-CAA P Eric Enderson, who earned third team All-America status during the 2014 season. Additionally, he coached P Nick Pritchard to a spot on the All-CAA Third Team during the 2017 season.
• During his first two seasons at Delaware, Allen was also responsible for coaching the tight ends and helped develop All-American Nick Boyle at that position. Boyle was selected by the Baltimore Ravens in the fifth round of the 2015 NFL Draft.
• Allen enjoyed great success during a six-year stint at the University of Rhode Island from 2008-13. During his tenure, he helped the Rams lead the CAA in fewest blocked kicks allowed and rank No. 2 in kickoff return average (22.3) during the 2013 campaign. Rhode Island also ranked No. 3 in the CAA in kickoff returns (20.9) and allowed the second fewest return yards in the league during the 2012 season.
• In 2011, Rhode Island averaged 21.5 yards per kick return while allowing an average of just 18.9 yards per return. In 2010, URI ranked in the CAA's top five in four special teams categories and held the league's top kickoff return average (23.8). Among the highlights was a blocked punt that was returned for the game-winning score over 2009 defending champion Villanova. In 2009, P Tim Edger led the CAA in punting with a 41.5 yard average, and in 2008, the Rams blocked nine kicks on the season.
• Allen began his collegiate coaching career as the offensive graduate assistant and video coordinator at Hofstra University in 2003. The following season, Allen moved on to Fort Scott Community College in Fort Scott, Kansas, where he served as wide receivers coach.

BOB FRASER

SENIOR ASSISTANT

Bob Fraser is in his seventh season back at Rutgers and 17th overall "On the Banks" in 2026. Bringing over 35 seasons of coaching experience, Fraser is in his fourth stint on the Scarlet Knights' staff. He first joined the program in 1987 as a graduate assistant before returning from 2006-11 in various capacities, including defensive coordinator. Fraser served as the RU linebackers coach in 2014 and 2015. Overall, Fraser has been part of nine Rutgers bowl trips, including six wins.

RUTGERS: 2020-PRESENT

• Fraser spent the 2023 and 2024 seasons as senior analyst in helping the Scarlet Knights to back-to-back winning seasons and bowl appearances.
• Fraser served as senior advisor in 2022, a season that saw Rutgers post its best mark in total defense in 10 years. He coached linebackers in 2020 and 2021.
• Fraser saw LB Olakunle Fatukasi (Buccaneers) and LB Tyreek Maddox-Williams (Chargers) both signed by NFL teams. Fatukasi earned Third Team All-Big Ten honors and was picked as national semifinalist for the Butkus Award twice.
• Rutgers gained 19 turnovers in 2020, most in a season since 2012, and 10 more than forced the previous season. That included at least one takeaway in eight games, multiple in four games and at least four two times. RU established a plus five turnover margin, its best in a Big Ten season.
• Rutgers led the Big Ten and ranked No. 11 nationally with 7.8 tackles-for-loss per game.
• Fraser helped Fatukasi, one of 16 national semifinalists for the Butkus Award, earn First Team All-Big Ten after leading the conference with 101 tackles. He became the first Rutgers defensive player to garner First Team All-Big Ten accolades, with his average of 11.2 tackles per game ranking ninth nationally, first in the league and most by a Scarlet Knight since 1999. He also ranked second in the Big Ten with 11.0 tackles-for-loss, adding two fumble recoveries, one forced fumble and a pass breakup.
• LB Tyshon Fogg collected honorable mention All-Big Ten after posting 70 tackles with 4.5 for loss.

RECENT EXPERIENCE

• Fraser spent the 2019 season as a coaching assistant for the New England Patriots, his third year in the NFL, after working 2016-18 as a quality control coach on the same staff as head coach Greg Schiano at Ohio State. The Buckeyes won two Big Ten championships in those three seasons, capping with a victory in the 2019 Rose Bowl.

RUTGERS: 2014-15

• Fraser was part of Rutgers' transition to the Big Ten, helping the team win eight games and the Quick Lane Bowl in 2014.
• LB Steve Longa led the team with 102 tackles and added 117 the following season to finish with 342 career stops, eighth most in program history. Longa signed with the Detroit Lions.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS

• Fraser spent two seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, including serving as the assistant defensive coordinator in 2013. During that season, the Buccaneers placed two players on the Associated Press All-Pro First Team in DT Gerald McCoy and OLB Lavonte David, a first for the franchise since 2005.

SPENCER BROWN

DIRECTOR OF SPORTS PERFORMANCE

Spencer Brown is in his second season as the Scarlet Knights' director of sports performance in 2026. The New Port Richey, Florida, native took over leadership of the Rutgers football strength and conditioning program in June 2025 after an 11-year tenure at Dartmouth.

PERSONAL
Hometown: New Port Richey, Fla.
Alma Mater: Lafayette, 2009

COACHING HISTORY

2025-present: Rutgers (director of sports performance)
2025: Rutgers (assistant strength and conditioning)
2016-24: Dartmouth (director of strength, speed and conditioning)
2014-16: Dartmouth (head strength and conditioning coach for football)
2012-13: Moravian (head strength and conditioning coach)
2010-11: Lafayette (assistant director of sports performance)

RUTGERS

• In 2025, the Scarlet Knights averaged 407.1 yards of total offense overall and 389.1 in Big Ten play, the team's best marks in a season since joining the league. Rutgers had the second-leading passer (QB Athan Kaliakmanis, 260.3) and third-leading rusher (RB Antwan Raymond, 103.4) and receiver (WR KJ Duff, 90.3) in the Big Ten, as RU was one of eight teams nationally to produce a 3,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver. Duff and Raymond, who were both Second Team All-Big Ten honorees, joined OL Kwabena Asamoah as All-America selections. On special teams, Rutgers led the nation with three punt return touchdowns, all off blocked punts.
• Brown arrived at Rutgers as assistant strength and conditioning coach in Jan. 2025 before being promoted to director of sports performance in June.

DARTMOUTH

• Brown spent 11 seasons at Dartmouth, including as director of strength, speed and conditioning the last nine. While leading the strength and conditioning department, he was also a member of the football coaching staff and worked closely with Nordic skiing and both men's and women's tennis. The role involved developing individualized year-round strength and conditioning programs for each sport in consultation with the coaching staffs, athletic trainers and student-athletes.
• In addition, duties included supervising six assistant coaches, as well as strength and conditioning interns, plus working with peak performance to help give the athletes the tools needed to be successful on the field and in the classroom.
• The Big Green won consistently on the gridiron during Brown's tenure in New Hampshire, claiming five Ivy League championships and posting eight top-two finishes overall.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

• Brown was the first-ever head strength and conditioning coach at Moravian College in Pennsylvania for two and a half years, during which time the Greyhounds saw increased performance level of their athletes across the board. He was also responsible for all administrative duties required to operate a fitness center, including managing a full staff and student-workers.
• Brown started as the assistant director of sports performance at his alma mater, Lafayette College, where his primary role was the football skill position players and the first-year football players. He oversaw the daily operation of a 4,000-square foot facility, as well as 14 other Leopard sport teams.
• A certified "Strength and Conditioning Specialist" through the National Strength and Conditioning Association, Brown holds a master's degree in exercise science with a concentration in sports performance and injury prevention.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

• A 2009 graduate of Lafayette with a degree in anthropology and sociology, Brown played linebacker as a four-year letterwinner on the Leopards' football team. He earned a spot on the 2008 Patriot League Academic Honor Roll and was a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Brown graduated from J.W. Mitchell High School in New Port Richey. He was a second-team all-state selection at the "athlete" position in football and two-time state qualifier in weightlifting. Brown was the St. Petersburg Times and Tampa Tribune Player of the Year.

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. – Rutgers football (4-4, 1-4) used a 30-yard field goal from PK Jai Patel as time expired to earn a 27-24 win at Purdue (2-6, 0-5) on Saturday at Ross-Ade Stadium.

With the game tied and just over a minute left, DL Farell Gnago forced a fumble, which was recovered by DB Jett Elad to set up Patel's game-winning kick.

QB Athan Kaliakmanis finished the day 19-of-27 with 359 yards, a passing touchdown and a rushing touchdown, marking his fourth 300-yard game of the season. WR KJ Duff had a career day, bringing in six catches for 241 yards to set an RU Big Ten record and adding a 72-yard touchdown catch. It was the sixth 200-yard receiving game in program history and he finished seven yards shy of tying the program record.

RB Antwan Raymond rushed for 116 yards and his 10th rushing score of the season.

DB Kaj Sanders paced the defense with 10 tackles, while Gnago and DB Jacobie Henderson each recorded a tackle-for-loss.

"Old" Rutgers Stadium

Dedicated on November 5, 1938 at the Rutgers-Princeton game, the Stadium had its first game two weeks earlier as Rutgers hosted Hampden-Sydney. The season finale against Lafayette was the third game in the Stadium. Rutgers won all three contests and did not lose at the site until the sixth game in 1940, a 7-6 loss to Lafayette. Rutgers won the first 13 Stadium games, including seven straight in 1939.

Years	Record
1938-1992	168-53-4

Giants Stadium

Rutgers played the first college game at the venue in 1976 and used the NFL stadium as a "home away from home," including an appearance in the 1978 Garden State Bowl.

Year	Record
1976-1996	20-28

SHI Stadium

Built on the site of the "Old" Rutgers Stadium on the Busch Campus in Piscataway. The name became High Point Solutions Stadium in 2011, HighPoint.com Stadium in 2018 and SHI Stadium in 2019.

HISTORY & TRADITION

NOV. 6, 1869: THE FIRST GAME

THE FIRST GAME

Rutgers and Princeton played the first game of intercollegiate football on Nov. 6, 1869, on a plot of ground where the present-day Rutgers gymnasium now stands in New Brunswick, N.J. Rutgers won that first game, 6-4.

The game was played with two teams of 25 men each under rugby-like rules, but like modern football, it was "replete with surprise, strategy, prodigies of determination and physical prowess," to use the words of one of the Rutgers players.

At 3 p.m. on that memorable afternoon, the 50 competitors and about 100 spectators gathered on the field. To distinguish themselves from the bareheaded visitors, 50 Rutgers students, including players, donned scarlet-colored scarves which they converted into turbans.

Events leading up to the game were described by John W. Herbert, Rutgers '72, who was one of the players: "To appreciate this game to the fullest you must know something of its background," Herbert wrote in 1933. "The two colleges were, and still are, of course, about 20 miles apart. The rivalry between them was intense. For years each had striven for possession of an old Revolutionary cannon, making night forays and lugging it back and forth time and again. Not long before the first football game, the canny Princetonians had settled this competition in their own favor by ignominiously sinking the gun in several feet of concrete. In addition to this, I regret to report, Princeton had beaten Rutgers in baseball by the harrowing score of 40-2. Rutgers longed for a chance to square things."

A challenge for the game was issued by Rutgers. Three games were to be played that year. The first, played at New Brunswick, was won by Rutgers. Princeton won the second game, but cries of "over-emphasis" prevented the third game in football's first year when faculties of both institutions protested on the grounds that the games were interfering with student studies. An analytical account of the game appeared in the November 1869 issue of The Targum, Rutgers' undergraduate newspaper.

"To describe the varying fortunes of the match, game by game, would be a waste of labor for every game was like the one before," wrote the student reporter. "There was the same headlong running, wild shouting, and frantic kicking.

"To sum up, Princeton had the most muscle, but didn't kick very well, and wanted organization. They evidently don't like to kick the ball on the ground. Our men, on the other hand, though comparatively weak, ran well, and kicked well throughout. But their great point was the organization, for which great praise is due to the captain. The right men were always in the right place."

One of the Princeton players, William Preston Lane, in 1933 contended in a newspaper interview that Rutgers "ran us Princeton men out of town. I never found out why they did that," he related. "But we don't ask any questions. When we saw them coming after us, we ran to the outskirts of New Brunswick and got into our carriages and wagons and went away as fast as we could."

Lane's contention is refuted in The Targum account. "After the match the players had an amicable "feed together," the paper reported. "At 8 o'clock our guests went home, in high good spirits, thirsting to beat us next time, if they can."

Regardless of what actually happened after the first game, football was here to stay. Rutgers got Columbia University started in the grid sport the following season and in a few years most of the colleges and universities in the East were represented on the gridiron.

PAUL ROBESON

THE HISTORY OF RUTGERS FOOTBALL

Parts of this article were written by John Bruns, former longtime sports writer for the Home News and the Easton Times-Express.

1869-1912: The Birthplace of College Football

When Rutgers defeated Princeton in 1869, the setting was quite different than it is today. The game was contested on a field along College Avenue in New Brunswick. There were not tens of thousands of cheering fans in a multi-million-dollar stadium. There was no manicured grass field or electronic scoreboard. There was no elaborate athletic equipment or television cameras. But on that fall day in 1869, those students established a tradition of quality football programs, competitiveness and school spirit that continues at Rutgers, the birthplace of intercollegiate football.

Over 150 years later, Rutgers has had many historical moments, outstanding athletes and memorable triumphs over the years.

However, those historic moments were difficult to predict during the early years when intercollegiate football scheduling was inconsistent. For example, Rutgers won six of 10 games in 1882, but played only one game in 1885. Similarly, the Scarlet Knights went 8-6 in 1891, but two years later played only four games. By the early 1900s, scheduling had become more consistent and football became more popular across the country.

The eight wins of 1891 were not matched until Rutgers went 8-1 in 1947 with one of the most successful teams of coach Harvey Harman in the Golden Era immediately following World War II. That team, quarterbacked by Frank Burns, who would later become Rutgers' most successful coach, lost its opener to Columbia and then swept through eight-straight opponents.

1913-1925: 'A Tradition of Success Begins'

In 1913, coach George Foster Sanford began a tradition of success among Rutgers coaches in their inaugural year by leading his team to a 6-3 mark. He then flirted with two perfect seasons, improving the team to 7-1 in 1915 and 7-1-1 in 1917.

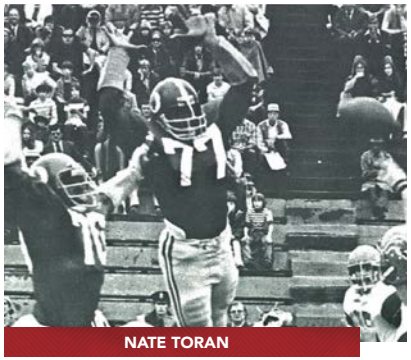
Those two seasons, which featured All-American Paul Robeson, were among Rutgers' best. The Scarlet Knights outscored opponents by an average of 44-3 in 1915 and 33-2 in 1917. Sanford, a member of Rutgers' Hall of Fame, also helped to introduce Rutgers to the New York metropolitan area, playing games at the Polo Grounds against teams like Notre Dame, Nebraska, Louisiana State and West Virginia. A few years later, in 1924, two-time All-America end and fullback Homer Hazel helped coach John Wallace continue the tradition of first-year coaching success, as Rutgers posted a 7-1-1 mark.

1925-1960: Making a Mark on the Collegiate Landscape

Harvey Harman also had a successful first season, going 7-1 in 1938, the year Rutgers dedicated the original Rutgers Stadium. Rutgers won the dedication game, 20-18, over Princeton.

Harman, however, was replaced by former coach Harry Rockafeller during World War II. His tenure included an 8-1 season in 1947 when Rutgers, dominated by WWII veterans, registered a combined record of 27-7 from 1945-48.

When John Steigman coached Rutgers from 1956-59, he brought back the single-wing formation to the Scarlet Knight offense, and led Rutgers to an 8-1 mark in 1958. The only loss of that season, 13-12 to the Quantico Marines, came when All-American tailback Billy Austin had to miss a game due to a broken hand.



NATE TORAN

1961-1972: RU's First Undefeated Season

Another first-year coach got off to an impressive start when John Bateman went 8-1 in 1960. That campaign was followed by Rutgers' first undefeated season in 1961, when the team went 9-0, capping the season with a fourth-quarter, 25-point comeback win over Columbia. That team included All-American center Alex Kroll, and was ranked 15th nationally. In his 11 seasons, Bateman led Rutgers to 73 wins in 124 games.

1973-1983: The Burns Era & 1976

In 1973, Frank Burns took the reins of Rutgers football and brought the program to new heights by building teams recognized for fundamentals and defense. Burns himself was also known as a fierce linebacker and won the Most Valuable Player Award in the 1949 College All-Star game, when he made 17 tackles against the New York Giants. Burns' defenses were led by linebackers Ed Steward, Jim Hughes, Jim Dumont and defensive end Nate Toran. Burns' first team went 6-5, while running back "JJ" Jennings rushed for 1,353 yards and 21 touchdowns.

Over the next five seasons, Burns' teams won at least seven games each season, including a five-season stretch from 1975-79 when Rutgers' winning percentage was .803 with a record of 45-11. The jewel in the crown of Burns' tenure as Rutgers' coach was the 1976 season, when the team was perfect at 11-0, establishing the best season ever at Rutgers. During Burns' 11 seasons at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights won nearly two-thirds of their games (78-43-1). He also took Rutgers to its first bowl appearance – the Garden State Bowl – at Giants Stadium against Arizona State in 1978.

Doubtless, the biggest win of the Burns era was the 13-7 upset of Tennessee on November 3, 1979 in Knoxville. Burns called it "the greatest of my coaching career."

1984-1989: Memorable Upsets

In 1984 when Dick Anderson was named head coach, a renewed commitment to football at Rutgers was backed by a $3 million state-funded package. Those funds helped finance the artificial surface practice fields, the practice "Bubble" and the Hale Center, which includes locker rooms, offices, a weight-training area and medical facilities for the football team.

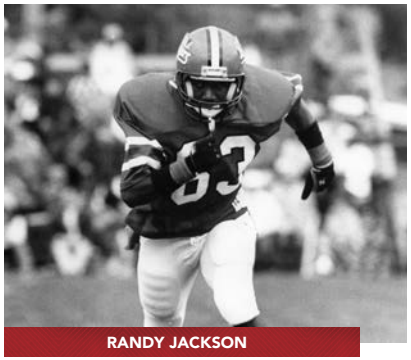
Anderson won seven of 10 games in his inaugural season. Other highlights of his years at Rutgers include upset wins over such nationally-ranked teams as Penn State and Michigan State, and a nationally-televised victory over Northwestern in the program's 1,000th game. Anderson's teams produced some of the most exciting players in Rutgers history, including record-breaking passer Scott Erney, career tackles leader Tyronne Stowe (533 from 1983-86) and football/baseball star Eric Young. Anderson's last game at Rutgers was a memorable one. It was the 1989 Emerald Isle Classic versus Pittsburgh in Dublin, Ireland, the first time a Rutgers team played overseas.

1990-1999: BIG EAST, Big Games

Doug Graber became the Scarlet Knights' 23rd coach in 1990 and placed an emphasis on recruiting the best talent in the state of New Jersey. His first recruiting class included three first team all-state selections and two second-team All-State selections among the 12 recruits from New Jersey.

Another major boost for Rutgers came in 1991 when Rutgers joined the Big East Conference and won its first league game over Boston College, 20-13. The team went 13-9 in its first two years in the league, including a 4-2 mark in 1992.

The 1994 season celebrated not only the 125 years of college football, but also the return of the newly-renovated and expanded Rutgers Stadium. The return was a welcome one. The new stadium has been quite a different setting than that of the first college football game played 130 years ago, as the Scarlet Knights are playing for their own place in history as they continue the college football tradition that was born "On the Banks of the Old Raritan."



RANDY JACKSON

2000-2005: Schiano's Arrival

1998 Big East Coach of the Year Terry Shea concluded his tenure in 2000, as the Scarlet Knights opted to take the program in a different direction for the 2001 season. On Dec. 1, 2000, Director of Athletics Bob Mulcahy introduced the newest coach in the storied history of Rutgers football, Greg Schiano.

Schiano's first three recruiting classes rejuvenated the football program. In 2003, the team closed strong, upsetting Syracuse, 24-7, in the season finale. In 2004, before the largest crowd ever at the time at Rutgers Stadium (42,612), the Scarlet Knights defeated Michigan State, 19-14.

In 2005, Schiano coached Rutgers to its best record in over a decade, 7-5, and its first bowl bid since 1978. In a Wild West shootout staged at Chase Field in Phoenix, Rutgers fell just short, losing to Arizona State, 45-40, at the Insight Bowl Dec. 27.

2006: Pandemonium in Piscataway

In 2006, Schiano was named the National Coach of the Year and Big East Coach of the Year, as the Scarlet Knights earned their first national top-10 ranking in 2006 and won 11 games for the second time in school history. The campaign included a thrilling win 28-25 over No. 3/4 Louisville in front of a Thursday night national audience on ESPN. The comeback victory, with RU overcoming an 18-point deficit, became one of the turning points in modern Rutgers history as fans stormed the field to ignite "Pandemonium in Piscataway." Rutgers ended the season with a ranking of No. 12 in the national polls.

The success Rutgers achieved on the field was something Schiano envisioned from the first day he became the leader of the Scarlet Knights. At his introductory press conference, Schiano stated, "We're going to win at Rutgers and we're going to do it the right way." The 2006 season was complete with a convincing 37-10 victory over Kansas State in the Texas Bowl, the first bowl championship in school history. In addition, Brian Leonard was the recipient of the Draddy Trophy, known as the Academic Heisman.

PANDEMONIUM IN PISCATAWAY

2007-11: Sustained Success

The program won eight more games in 2007, including the highest ranked win in program history with a 30-27 victory over No. 2 USF. The season concluded with a dominating 52-30 victory over Ball State at the International Bowl in Toronto. Ray Rice ran for a school-record 280 rushing yards on the day to bring his career total to 4,926, a program high. An All-America pick and Heisman Trophy candidate, the running back also set the Scarlet Knight standards for attempts (910), touchdowns (49) and 100-yard games (25).

The 2008 campaign for the Scarlet Knights started slowly, but the program relied on a strong foundation built by Schiano and together as a family, Rutgers turned in seven consecutive victories to close out the season – culminating in a 29-23 victory over NC State in the PapaJohns.com Bowl. In 2009, the Scarlet Knights saw a number of milestones set en route to a record of 9-4, including a 45-24 victory over UCF in the St. Petersburg Bowl.

Prior to Schiano's arrival at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights had never fielded a receiver who had gained 1,000 yards in a season. In 2009, Tim Brown became the fourth during his tenure to eclipse the mark. Brown also became the school's all-time leader in receiving touchdowns, passing RU's initial first round draft pick Kenny Britt. RU had two first-round picks in 2010, with Anthony Davis being the highest pick in program history at No. 11 by the San Francisco 49ers. Devin McCourty was selected at No. 27 by the New England Patriots.

While the results on the field did not favor Rutgers in 2010, the world was introduced to Eric LeGrand. The junior defensive tackle suffered a spinal cord injury at MetLife Stadium Oct. 16 against Army, but he did not let the condition bring him down. LeGrand has become a public figure and has raised countless dollars towards spinal cord research. He became the first Scarlet Knight in the 144 years of the football program to have his number retired during halftime of the Sept. 14, 2013 game against Eastern Michigan.

Rutgers returned to a bowl game in 2011 with a trip to the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. It was the second game of the season for the team at Yankee Stadium. The Scarlet Knights defeated Army during the regular season before beating Iowa State in the bowl game. Wide receiver Mohamed Sanu set the school record with 115 receptions on the season and was drafted in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals.

2012: Big East Champions

Following the season, head coach Greg Schiano took the head coaching job with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to end an 11-year tenure. Kyle Flood, who joined the program in 2005, was promoted from the staff to the lead position several days later.

SEPT. 13, 2014: FIRST BIG TEN GAME

Flood made an immediate impact on the Rutgers program with a successful first season, as he led the school to its first Big East Championship in 2012, ending with a 9-4 record and 5-2 record in the league. Flood was named the Big East Coach of the Year. Flood's nine regular season victories were the most by any first-year coach in Rutgers history, as eight players garnered All-Big East honors. Khaseem Greene totaled 136 tackles to earn Big East Defensive Player of the Year for the second consecutive season, in addition to All-America status. The defensive unit was among the best in school history, ranking fourth nationally in scoring defense, tied for ninth in turnovers gained and 10th in total defense.

The year culminated with a trip to the Russell Athletic Bowl in Orlando to face Virginia Tech. In the offseason, Rutgers had 12 players signed by NFL teams, with a school-record seven selected in the NFL Draft. Rutgers came out of the gates in 2013 with a 4-1 start through September. In its first American Athletic Conference game, Rutgers won in triple overtime at SMU, 55-52. The 2013 New Era Pinstripe Bowl was the eighth bowl trip in nine years for Rutgers. The Scarlet Knights took on a ranked Notre Dame team inside a sold-out Yankee Stadium.

2014-19: Big Ten - Our New Home

On July 1, 2014, Rutgers officially joined the Big Ten Conference to usher in a new era in its deep and storied history. Support for the program reached new levels for the Big Ten opener, as a stadium-record 53,774 fans packed High Point Solutions Stadium for a game against Penn State. The Scarlet Knights won their first Big Ten game Oct. 4 over Michigan, with Kemoko Turay leaping to block a potential go-ahead field goal to seal the win and set off a storming of the field. The first road win in conference play came at Maryland after RU erased a 35-10 deficit to win 41-38 in the biggest comeback in school history, which would be matched a year later at Indiana. Senior quarterback Gary Nova threw for 347 yards on a career-best 28 completions in the 2014 win versus the Terrapins, ending his career as the all-time touchdown passing leader (73).

The first year in the Big Ten would be capped off with a convincing 40-21 win over North Carolina in the Quick Lane Bowl, hosted by the Detroit Lions. The Scarlet Knights went 8-5 and earned the Lambert-Meadowlands Trophy, emblematic of the top team in the East in the Bowl Subdivision.

In the second year in the Big Ten, Leonte Carroo closed his time as a Scarlet Knight with 10 receiving touchdowns to raise his school-record total to 29 over 31 games at the position. He averaged a score once every 4.2 receptions over his career, racking up 2,373 yards to join the list of standout wide receivers.

On Dec. 7, 2015, Chris Ash took over the program as the Scarlet Knights continued to establish a presence in the Big Ten and nationally. The program added a number of facility upgrades during his tenure, including the Marco Battaglia Football Practice Complex and the Brown Family Football Locker Room. Culminating a year-long celebration of the 150th anniversary of the first college football game, Rutgers marked the occasion on Nov. 6, 2019 with the Ringing of the Bells at Old Queens and the unveiling of a new plaque at the site celebrating its 6-4 win over Princeton.

2020: Welcome Back, Coach Schiano

With a change of leadership announced during the 2019 season, Rutgers announced the return of Schiano as head football coach on Dec. 3, 2019. The Scarlet Knights improved immediately during Schiano's first season back, as it matched its program high with three Big Ten victories during the pandemic-shortened 2020 campaign. Rutgers had 14 players recognized in the All-Big Ten voting, the most for the program since joining the league.

The progress continued in 2021 with the program's first 3-0 start since 2012. In Big Ten action, RU won two road games, a come-from-behind victory at Illinois that saw a late fourth-down stop and a five-touchdown triumph over Indiana, the program's largest margin of victory in a Big Ten game. With just nine days' notice, Schiano led the Scarlet Knights to the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl on New Year's Eve, battling top-20 Wake Forest in front of a national television audience of over three million on ESPN. In 2022, the victory over Temple marked the 79th win for head coach Greg Schiano to pass the legendary Frank Burns as the program's all-time wins leader. Rutgers also set an average home attendance record as interest in the program continues to rise. One of eight players to collect All-Big Ten honors, three-time captain P Adam Korsak earned First Team All-America status and won the Ray Guy Award as the nation's best punter. It marked the first on-field national award won by a Rutgers football player in program history.

The Scarlet Knights' upward trajectory in 2023 saw the team finish with seven wins, the program's first winning season since 2014. The campaign was capped by a 31-24 win over Miami in the Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl. RB Kyle Monangai highlighted the offensive production with a Big Ten-best 1,262 rushing yards. Monangai, who left as the second-leading rusher in the school record book, would follow that up by being named First Team All-Big Ten in 2024, a season that saw RU win a program-high four Big Ten games and appear in its ninth bowl game under Schiano.

The Scarlet Knights continue to develop players for the NFL, with Monangai, Athan Kaliakmanis, Robert Longerbeam and Kyonte Hamilton all being drafted the past two seasons, as over 100 Scarlet Knights have reached the NFL under Schiano.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

HOMER HAZEL (CLASS OF 1951)

He parted his dark hair down the middle, in the fashion of the day, and his deep-set eyes glowed with a competitive fire. Homer Hazel, Rutgers' first Hall of Famer, was, without doubt, the most versatile player the Scarlet ever produced. A natural athlete, Hazel excelled in various sports and was most successful as a track and field star. His speed and quickness served him well, for he once recovered his own kickoff in the enemy end zone for a touchdown. Homer led Rutgers to identical 7-1-1 records in his final two seasons, earning All-America laurels in each. He was an end in 1923, when the only Scarlet loss was to West Virginia (27-7). He had Rutgers on the way to an unbeaten finish in 1924 - this time as a hard-hitting fullback - when Bucknell untracked the Scarlet in the final game of the season, 12-7. During the 1924 campaign, Homer Hazel established school records for most points after a touchdown and longest completed pass. He could do it all. Carrying 226 pounds over a 5-foot-11 frame, Homer lettered in football, basketball, baseball and track at Rutgers. He later served as Athletic Director, football and basketball coach at the University of Mississippi for more than five years. He was a golf pro for four years, and a labor relations manager for more than 20 years. Hazel won his first letter in football at Rutgers in 1916. He left school because of a lack of funds. Hazel worked at various jobs and, at age 28, played football again at Rutgers. Walter Camp named him All-America end in 1923, All-America fullback in 1924. Hazel was born June 2, 1895, and died February 3, 1968.

GEORGE LITTLE (CLASS OF 1955)

A graduate of Ohio Wesleyan, George Little opened his coaching career at the University of Cincinnati and produced a two-year record of 10-8-0 before moving up the road to Oxford, Ohio, home of the Miami Redskins, in 1916. There, Little brought the Redskins their first Conference Championship and a 7-0-1 mark. After service in World War I, Little returned to Miami and directed the Red and White to yet another league crown and a three-year post-war record of 20-3-1. He also coached the Miami basketball and track teams, claiming a conference crown in the latter sport. The 1922 and 1923 seasons found Little at Michigan under head coach Fielding Yost, the man he replaced in 1924. That year, Little's Wolverines were 6-2. The next season, Little was in Wisconsin as the new Athletic Director and head coach of the Badgers, and he led his charges to a two-year mark of 11-3-2. His teams displayed imagination and strength on offense, a unique ruggedness on defense. Little wound up his collegiate career as the Athletic Director at Rutgers, and then served as executive secretary of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame.

GEORGE FOSTER SANFORD (CLASS OF 1971)

At the entrance to Rutgers Stadium, inscribed upon a bronze plaque, is a tribute to George Sanford. It was financed and installed by his players, the men "...he inspired to deeds beyond themselves." Undoubtedly, Sanford was an inspirational leader of men, a gentleman who excelled as both player and coach. Sanford played center on the 1891 and 1892 Yale teams which held each of their 26 opponents scoreless. Though he was never chosen to an All-America team, a 1927 poll named him the all-time Yale center. Sanford began his coaching career at Columbia (1899-1901), called in to revive the football program which had been abandoned after the 1891 campaign. His 1899 team defeated Yale for the first time ever, and it was at Columbia that Sanford developed the famous "Flying Hurdle Play" which saw Harold Weekes catapulted over the line of scrimmage. Moving to Rutgers (1913-23), Sanford had marked success as his club rolled to a 56-32-5 record. He was hailed as a "miracle worker" in 1917, after his Rutgers team beat the heavily-favored Newport Naval Reserve All-Stars, 14-0. Between his teams at Columbia and Rutgers, Sanford devoted his energy toward a successful insurance brokerage business.

HARVEY HARMAN (CLASS OF 1981)

Few men loved the game with the fervor of Harvey Harman, a huge man with a grand smile and a fierce dedication to the sport. A former president of the American Football Coaches Association, Harman received that group's Amos Alonzo Stagg Award, symbolic of outstanding service to the profession. It was not surprising that Harman achieved such acclaim, for he learned his football lessons from two of the game's mentors - Glenn "Pop" Warner and Jock Sutherland - while at Pittsburgh. Harman was a starting tackle for the Panthers before taking his first coaching assignment at Haverford. From there he moved on to Sewanee (the University of the South), Pennsylvania and Rutgers. It was at Rutgers that he had his greatest success, directing the Scarlet Knights to a 26-7-1 record before interrupting his career to serve in the U.S. Navy during World War II. Harman returned to Rutgers after the war and led the Scarlet Knights for another 10 seasons before accepting a position as Executive Director of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame, Inc. In that capacity, Harman became known as the goodwill ambassador for football, continuing to serve the game until his death in 1969. His career record lists a slate of 140-104-7.

PAUL ROBESON (CLASS OF 1995)

Paul Robeson played four years for the famous coach, G. Foster Sanford. Rutgers had a 22-6-3 record in that time. In 31 games, Rutgers scored 941 points to opponents' 191. Robeson was a powerful contributor to that record. Robeson was a two-time All-America end. Frank Menke named him All-America in 1917 and 1918. Walter Camp picked him in 1918. (Camp did not name an All-America team in 1917.) Following college, Robeson played three years as a pro - 1920 with Hammond, 1921 with Akron and 1922 with Milwaukee - in the American Professional Football League. He obtained his law degree in 1923. At Rutgers, Robeson was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and was valedictorian of the class of 1919. He won the college oratorical contest four-straight years and gave the commencement address at graduation. Robeson won 12 letters in four sports - four in football, three each in basketball and baseball, and two in track. He stood 6-3 in height and his weight was listed at 191 in early years, at 215 his senior season. This man of many talents became an actor, singer and lecturer. He was on Broadway and in the movies. His rich basso made his signature song "Ol' Man River" a classic. He starred in plays, such as "The Emperor Jones," "Othello," "Showboat," as well as many others, in the U.S., Europe and Africa. In 1925 he made a recording that sold 55,000 copies in four months. In 1972 he received the Whitney Young Memorial Award. Ebony Magazine called him "one of the 10 most important black men in American history." Paul Robeson was born April 9, 1898, in Princeton, N.J. His father, Rev. William Robeson, had escaped slavery in 1860 in North Carolina at age 15. His mother, Maria Bustill, was a teacher. When Paul was a high school senior, he won the statewide academic test and received a scholarship to Rutgers. In 1915, he was the third African-American to enter Rutgers and the first to play football. He died January 23, 1976. After his tenure at Rutgers, he became an accomplished actor, singer and lecturer, and was commemorated on a U.S. postal stamp.

ALEX KROLL (CLASS OF 1997)

Alex Kroll, a consensus All-American center on Rutgers' first undefeated football team in 1961, is the Scarlet Knights' sixth inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame, as a part of the Class of 1997. Kroll, a 6-2, 228-pound center and linebacker, was a major force in Rutgers compiling a 17-1 record in his two years of play "On the Banks." In 1960, the Knights, under coach John Bateman, were 8-1 and followed up with the school's first undefeated campaign, going 9-0 in 1961. Team captain of the lauded 1961 squad, Kroll was a two-time first-team All-ECAC choice and won first-team All-America honors from the Associated Press, United Press International, Newspaper Enterprise Association, Look, and the American Football Coaches Association. Known as a "coach on the field," he was credited with making the quarterback sneak an offensive weapon as Rutgers scored seven touchdowns on that play in 1961 with Kroll clearing the way into the end zone for the signal-caller. He was also a first-team All-East choice by the AP in 1961 and played in the North-South game and the Senior Bowl. In 1960, he was an honorable mention All-American. Following his senior season, he was a second-round draft pick of the New York Titans, playing for one season in 1962. Kroll earned a BA in English Literature in 1962 and was a Henry Rutgers Scholar with a perfect grade point average in his major. He received a National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Post-Graduate Scholarship in 1961. In 1986, he was awarded the Silver Anniversary Award from the National Collegiate Athletic Association for his collegiate achievements. Immediately following his last game with the Titans, he joined the workforce at Young & Rubicam, the world's largest independent advertising agency, as a copywriter. After a succession of writing and supervisory jobs in the creative department, he was named executive vice president and worldwide creative director in 1970. He was named president and chief operating officer in 1982 and, four years later, Kroll became chairman of Young & Rubicam. He moved to Vermont upon retirement and passed away in 2024 at age 87.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. – In its first postseason action in program history, Rutgers faced Arizona State at Giants Stadium in the inaugural Garden State Bowl in 1978. The Scarlet Knights pulled ahead in the first half on a touchdown by David Dorn and field goal from Kennan Startzell to take a 10-0 lead. However, the Sun Devils closed the gap just before the end of the first half when Mark Malone found Bob Weathers in the end zone. In the third quarter, Arizona State claimed the lead with two Malone touchdown passes and in the final quarter added another score with a rushing touchdown to make the score 28-10. Ted Blackwell brought the Scarlet Knights to within 10 points with his five-yard rushing touchdown and successful two-point conversion. Rutgers had a final chance to take over the game when an onside kick came bouncing its way, but an offside flag on the kickoff erased the Scarlet Knights' good fortune. Arizona State tacked on two touchdowns to secure the 34-18 victory.

PHOENIX – In a Wild West shootout staged at Phoenix's Chase Stadium, Rutgers fell just short of the program's first bowl victory, losing to Arizona State, 45-40, at the Insight Bowl. RU scored the game's first touchdown on a pass from Ryan Hart to Clark Harris, but ASU quickly responded with a touchdown of its own, evening the game at 7-7. Both teams traded a number of scores, but back-to-back touchdowns in the fourth quarter helped ASU to a 45-33 lead and the eventual victory. Rutgers engineered a 63-yard touchdown drive in the final 51 seconds, but it was not enough as the Sun Devils held on for the 45-40 win.

HOUSTON – Rutgers' most memorable season ended with another milestone victory. Ray Rice rushed for 170 yards and a touchdown and Tim Brown caught two touchdown passes, and the 16th-ranked Scarlet Knights won a bowl game for the first time, beating Kansas State in the Texas Bowl, 37-10. Linebacker Quintero Frierson returned an interception 27 yards for a touchdown on the first play from scrimmage of the second half and Rutgers cruised from there, earning an 11th victory for the second time in the school's history. Rice was named the game's Most Valuable Player after topping 100 yards for the 10th time this season and the 15th time in 25 career games. The 5-foot-9, 195-pound sophomore went over 150 yards for the fifth time this season. The Scarlet Knights' seventh-ranked defense manhandled Kansas State's offense, holding the Wildcats to 160 total yards and six first downs. Freshman quarterback Josh Freeman finished 10-for-21 for 124 yards with two interceptions. Kansas State mustered only 94 yards after Frierson's return of Freeman's first interception put Rutgers up 24-10 only 33 seconds out of halftime.

TORONTO – In its third-consecutive bowl game, Rutgers pulled off another program milestone with its second-straight postseason victory as the Scarlet Knights defeated Ball State, 52-30. Ray Rice had one of the finest individual outings in college football history, rushing for a career-high 280 yards and four touchdowns en route to being named the International Bowl's Most Valuable Player, his second-consecutive MVP honor in a bowl game. Rice's 280 yards were the third-most rushing yards in NCAA bowl history. He entered the game with 1,732 yards on the ground and ended his season with 2,012 yards rushing to become the 13th player in NCAA history to amass more than 2,000 yards. The rushing total also set a Big East and school single-season record. The 52 points scored were the most in Rutgers' bowl history. Including both individual and team marks, RU set a total of nine bowl records at the International Bowl.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – Fitting that Rutgers would end the 2008 season with a come-from-behind win. After winning only one of their first six games, Mike Teel and the Scarlet Knights erased an 11-point second half deficit to defeat North Carolina State in the PapaJohns.com Bowl, 29-23. Leading the comeback -- as he did all season -- was Teel, who passed for 319 yards and two touchdowns, including a 42-yard scoring toss to Kenny Britt to give the Scarlet Knights the lead for good in the fourth quarter. Teel's pass to Britt with 8:30 to play proved to be the winning touchdown. Britt, a third-team All-American, made a juggling catch as he crossed the goal line and finished with six catches for 119 yards. Teel, a senior, was the game's most valuable player. He ended his career on a seven-game winning streak. NC State held a 17-6 halftime edge, led by quarterback Russell Wilson who was 11-for-23 for 186 yards and a score. But Wilson left the game with a strained knee late in the first half and did not return. The Scarlet Knights scored 10 consecutive points in the third quarter on a 31-yard field goal by San San Te and an 11-yard pass from Teel to Tiquan Underwood. Rutgers took a 19-17 lead with 13:31 to play on a 28-yard field by Te after a 10-play 70-yard drive. The Wolfpack came right back as reserve quarterback Daniel Evans drove them 64 yards in eight plays and hit Anthony Hill with a 16-yard touchdown pass to give NC State a 23-19 lead. But it was only two plays later when Teel hit Britt for the go-ahead score.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. – Rutgers capped off its fifth-straight bowl appearance with its fourth-consecutive bowl victory, defeating Central Florida, 45-24, in the 2009 St. Petersburg Bowl at Tropicana Field. The Scarlet Knights showed a great display of balance in all three phases of the game, recording touchdowns on offensive, defensive and special teams. RU ended the night with two rushing touchdowns, two passing touchdowns, one interception and one kickoff returned for scores. Rutgers gained 380 yards of total offense behind a career passing day from freshman quarterback Tom Savage who completed 14-of-27 passes for 294 yards and two touchdowns. Fellow true freshman Mohamed Sanu also enjoyed a career-best evening as he accounted for three of RU's five touchdowns. Sanu had 13 carries for 41 yards and a pair of touchdowns, in addition to catching four passes for 97 yards and a touchdown. For his performance Sanu was awarded the Most Outstanding Player trophy, joining past bowl honorees Ray Rice (2006 Texas Bowl, 2008 International Bowl) and Mike Teel (2008 PapaJohns.com Bowl).

BRONX, N.Y. – Chas Dodd hit Brandon Coleman for an 86-yard touchdown pass late in the fourth quarter and Jawan Jamison ran for two scores to lead Rutgers over Iowa State, 27-13, in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. The Scarlet Knights ran their bowl winning streak to five and improved to 2-0 this season at Yankee Stadium, where they beat Army earlier in the season. Rutgers, which played in one bowl game before 2005, is 5-1 in the postseason since that season. The Cyclones finished the season on a three-game losing streak, their last win coming on Nov. 18 in Ames, Iowa, when they pulled off the biggest upset of the season against No. 2 Oklahoma State. In this game, Steele Jantz relieved Barnett in the second quarter and helped pull the Cyclones within 20-13 in the fourth on Jeff Woody's 20-yard touchdown run with 10:00 left. After an exchange of punts left Rutgers deep in its own end, Dodd went deep to Coleman. The 6-foot-6 redshirt freshman went over 5-7 cornerback Jeremy Reeves, then outran the corner to the end zone to make it 27-13 with 5:47 left. It was Coleman's only catch, but it turned out to be the play of the game. Jamison, another redshirt freshman giving Rutgers fans hope for more bowls to come, finished with 131 yards on 27 carries.

ORLANDO – Rutgers saw its 2012 season come to an end with a 13-10 overtime loss to Virginia Tech in the Russell Athletic Bowl in Orlando. The loss ended the Scarlet Knights' bowl win streak at five, which had previously been the longest active streak in the nation. In the 15th meeting between the two squads, Rutgers held a 10-0 lead heading into the fourth quarter. The Scarlet Knights scored first on a ball that was snapped over Virginia Tech quarterback Logan Thomas and recovered in the end zone by Rutgers linebacker Khaseem Greene on the opening drive. An RU field goal by Nick Borgese late in the opening quarter would be the final points until the last stanza. In the fourth, the Hokies were able to tie it up. In the first overtime possession, the Hokies settled for a 22-yard field goal to take a 13-10 lead. Rutgers had a possession to answer, but after going three-and-out, Borgese missed wide-right on a 42-yard field goal attempt to end the game. Rutgers finished the year 9-4 and earned a share of the school's first Big East Championship.

BRONX, N.Y. – A 47-yard field goal by Kyle Federico brought Rutgers within three with less than nine minutes remaining, but 10 unanswered points by Notre Dame iced the contest, as the Irish defeated the Scarlet Knights, 29-16, in the 2013 Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium. It was the eighth bowl trip in nine seasons for Rutgers. A Pinstripe Bowl record crowd of 47,122 watched a back-and-forth affair for the majority of the contest, with neither team leading by more than one possession until late in the fourth quarter. Brandon Coleman led RU in receiving with two catches for 65 yards and a touchdown, while Paul James logged 48 yards on 10 rushing attempts. Coleman's touchdown late in the first quarter was the 20th of his career, tying him for the school record. Federico converted all three of his field goal attempts.

DETROIT – In control from the outset, Rutgers thoroughly dominated North Carolina, 40-21, in the Quick Lane Bowl at Ford Field, turning in one of its stronger performances of the year to finish the 2014 campaign at 8-5. Quarterback Gary Nova threw two touchdown passes, freshmen running backs Josh Hicks and Robert Martin proved to be a dynamic 1-2 punch in the running game, with each topping 100 yards rushing, and the Scarlet Knights' defense quieted the most productive offense in North Carolina history for all but the final 6:45 of the game. The Scarlet Knights jumped out to a 23-0 lead at halftime, sparked by a 34-yard touchdown pass from Nova to Andre Patton on the first drive of the game. Hicks and Martin both added rushing scores to pad the lead, with Kyle Federico connecting from 19 yards away with 11 seconds left in the second quarter. Nova, who finished 9-of-20 for 184 yards, pushed the Scarlet Knights' 23-0 halftime lead to 30-7 with his second touchdown pass - this one a 34-yard strike to Andrew Turzilli - with 7:33 left in the third quarter. The advantage grew to 37-7 on Martin's 28-yard touchdown run with 14:11 to play. Federico tacked on a 31-yard field goal with 10:04 remaining to make it 40-7. Martin and Hicks joined Ray Rice (three times) and Jawan Jamison as the only Rutgers backs to rush for 100 yards in a bowl game. Martin (19 carries for 100 yards and two touchdowns) and Hicks (202 yards and one touchdown on 19 carries) also joined Rice as the only true freshmen to reach 100 in a bowl for the Scarlet Knights. Hicks was named MVP of the game for his efforts. The rushing totals for both Martin and Hicks were career highs, with Rutgers' 340 rushing yards overall the most in program history in a bowl game and the highest total of the season.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. – Rutgers football lost to No. 20 Wake Forest, 38-10, in the 77th TaxSlayer Gator Bowl, held at TIAA Bank Field. With the 2021 bowl season impacted by the pandemic, the Scarlet Knights put together a roster to compete on just nine days' notice after they were selected to compete in the prestigious Gator Bowl, the sixth-oldest bowl game, on Dec. 23. Quarterback Johnny Langan earned Rutgers' MVP for the game with 57 receiving yards on a career-high six receptions, 20 rushing yards and two completions for 21 yards. Running back Aaron Young scored his team-leading sixth touchdown of the season on the team's opening possession and quarterback Gavin Wimsatt produced a team-long 32-yard rush. On defense, Mohamed Toure (1.5), Desmond Igbinosun (1.0) and Drew Singleton (0.5) all contributed sacks, while Kessawn Abraham led the way with two passes batted away. RU posted eight tackles-for-loss, including one to force a fumble by Igbinosun. Toure recorded a team-high seven tackles to match his career high. After Wake Forest found the end zone on its first possession, Rutgers responded with an 11-play, 75-yard scoring drive of its own. Quarterback Noah Vedral completed long third-down completions to Matt Alaimo, Jovani Haskins and Joshua Youngblood to set up a 12-yard touchdown run by Young with 5:11 left in the quarter. The Demon Deacons would add another touchdown for a 14-7 advantage at the end of one. The Scarlet Knights marched into enemy territory on their following possession to open the second quarter. Wide receiver Isaiah Washington threw across the field to Johnny Langan for a 27-yard gain, while placekicker Valentino Ambrosio drilled a 28-yard field goal four plays later to make it 14-10 with 12:02 left in the quarter. RU's defense held strong for the remainder of the first half, as it allowed just two field goals.

BRONX, N.Y. – Rutgers football (7-6) defeated Miami (7-6), 31-24, at the 2023 Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl. It marked the program's seventh bowl championship, sixth under head coach Greg Schiano and second victory in the Pinstripe Bowl, as the Scarlet Knights secured their first winning season since 2014. Down 17-14 with just over 10 minutes left in the third quarter, RU scored 17 unanswered points to collect the win over the Hurricanes. DB Trevor Yeboah-Kodie blocked a punt at Miami's one-yard line, which was recovered by DB Timmy Ward in the end zone for a touchdown, while QB Gavin Wimsatt's second rushing score of the day and a 35-yard field goal from PK Jai Patel helped Rutgers to the come-from-behind victory. RB Kyle Monangai earned the game's MVP trophy after he finished with 25 carries for 163 yards and a touchdown. It was the seventh 100-yard rushing game for Monangai, who finished the season with 1,262 yards on the ground. LB Deion Jennings led the defense with nine tackles and one for loss, LB Mohamed Toure added eight tackles, two tackles-for-loss and a sack, while freshman LB Abram Wright recorded his first career interception.

WILLIAM F. TATE IV

PRESIDENT OF RUTGERS UNIVERSITY

William F. Tate IV, an award-winning scholar, took office as the 22nd president of Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, on July 1, 2025. He also serves as a University Professor and Distinguished Professor.

Prior to accepting the Rutgers presidency, he served as president of Louisiana State University (LSU) and held faculty and leadership roles at the University of South Carolina, Washington University in St. Louis, Texas Christian University (TCU), and the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

PREVIOUS ROLES

As chief executive officer of both the LSU system and its flagship campus, President Tate oversaw a public research institution with over 60,000 undergraduate, graduate, and professional students; 3,000 full-time faculty; an estimated economic impact of over $6 billion; and more than 200 licenses, while holding faculty appointments in sociology, psychiatry and behavioral medicine, epidemiology, and public health. In recognition of his record-setting tenure at Louisiana State University, Dr. Tate received a U.S. Congressional Commendation, along with formal resolutions from the Louisiana Senate and House of Representatives.

President Tate served as executive vice president for academic affairs and provost, while holding the Education Foundation Distinguished University Professorship, at the University of South Carolina. Prior to that, he served as a department chair and dean of the graduate school and vice provost for graduate education at Washington University in St. Louis. In addition, he held the Edward Mallinckrodt Distinguished University Professorship in Arts and Sciences. Prior to joining Washington University in St. Louis, he served as the William L. and Betty F. Adams Chair at TCU and as a tenured faculty member at the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

ACADEMIC BACKGROUND

President Tate is an elected member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the National Academy of Education. In addition, he is the recipient of numerous research recognitions including being elected to fellow status in the American Educational Research Association (AERA) as well as association-related honors including an Early Career Contribution Award, Presidential Citation, Distinguished Scholar Award in Mathematics Education, and Distinguished Contributions in Education Research Lifetime Achievement Award-Division G.

He was awarded the Anna Julia Cooper Postdoctoral Fellowship to study social and public policy at the University of Wisconsin–Madison. He later completed a second postdoctoral fellowship at the Washington University School of Medicine, where he earned a Master's in Psychiatric Epidemiology (M.P.E.).

Prior to his postdoctoral training, President Tate earned a Ph.D. in mathematics education with a cognate in human development from the University of Maryland, College Park, where he was a Patricia Roberts Harris Fellow. He also holds an M.A. in mathematical sciences education from the University of Texas at Dallas and a B.S. in economics with a minor in mathematical sciences from Northern Illinois University.

He is married to Kim Cash Tate and they have two young adult children. Kim Cash Tate is an author, Bible teacher, singer/songwriter, and YouTuber. She earned a B.A. from the University of Maryland, College Park, and a J.D. from the George Washington University Law School.

KELI ZINN

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Keli Zinn serves as Rutgers Director of Athletics.

A collegiate athletics leader with over 20 years of power conference experience and a proven track record of transforming championship-level programs, Zinn arrived 'On the Banks' in July of 2025. In her two decades as an athletics administrator, Zinn has played key roles in departments that have amassed a combined 16 national championships and 34 conference championships.

In her first season leading the Scarlet Knights, Zinn has transformed the athletic department to navigate the new era of college athletics. She has moved expeditiously, reshaping NIL operations, modernizing revenue generation strategies and making bold leadership decisions to position the athletic department for growth and success.

Zinn spearheaded the formation of Scarlet Knight Enterprises, which centralizes the athletic department's most valuable commercial assets into a unified structure, designed to identify new corporate partners, maximize marketing opportunities and expand brand value. In its first year, this strategy helped drive an 118 percent increase in revenue, demonstrating the significant commercial opportunity surrounding Rutgers Athletics. Scarlet Knight Enterprises reflects a commitment to aligning the department's commercial strategy with the scale of opportunity available in the Big Ten and its position in the nation's No. 1 media market.

While competitive success remains a focus with roster investment and a clear commercial strategy, Zinn has continued to prioritize the preparation of student-athletes for life after graduation. The Scarlet Knights achieved the highest cumulative grade point average in department history for the 2025-26 academic year. Additionally, student-athletes continue to make a positive impact on their communities evidenced by the department being recognized with the 2026 Fiesta Bowl Community Service Award.

Zinn arrived at Rutgers following her stint as the executive deputy athletic director and chief operating officer at Louisiana State University. Zinn oversaw all external and internal affairs of the athletics department, working closely with University leadership, senior athletics administration and campus and community partners. Her work included supervision of all 21 varsity programs with direct oversight of football and gymnastics, revenue generation, capital projects and strategic initiatives.

Zinn was instrumental in advancing LSU's Name, Image, and Likeness (NIL) strategy, forging a partnership to produce The Money Game, a documentary series following Tigers student-athletes, which launched on Amazon Prime Video. Her innovative approach secured NIL agreements and fundraising growth across multiple sports, positioning LSU as a national NIL leader.

Zinn helped drive a significant growth in revenue, renegotiating the Tigers' multimedia rights and apparel partnerships, securing record-setting increases in value. She boosted ticket sales, merchandise revenue and donor support during her time at LSU. In 2024, football surpassed its highest number of season tickets since 2017, with a total of 71,250 tickets sold.

At LSU, Zinn helped lead the Tigers to unprecedented success: four national championships (gymnastics, women's basketball, and baseball twice), three SEC titles including women's track and field and women's gymnastics, and a top-10 finish in the Director's Cup for the first time since 2008-09.

The football program completed one of the biggest turnarounds in college football during Zinn's first season in Baton Rouge in 2022, posting a 10-win regular season and the SEC Western Division title before winning the Citrus Bowl. In her three years with the Tigers, football won 29 games, with a 3-0 record in bowl games, and celebrated numerous first round NFL Draft picks, including 2023 Heisman Trophy winner, Jayden Daniels.

Prior to her time at LSU, Zinn spent 12 seasons at her alma mater West Virginia. While there, she served as deputy athletics director and chief operating officer of the department from 2016-2022. A native of Petersburg, West Virginia, Zinn was appointed the school's interim Director of Athletics, becoming the first woman to lead the department.

Zinn joined WVU in 2010 as associate athletic director for compliance and governance and in 2014, was elevated to executive senior associate athletics director. In her oversight of the day-to-day operations, Zinn helped guide the athletic department through its transition into the Big 12 in 2012.

In Nov. 2021, Zinn was selected as West Virginia Executive Magazine's cover recipient of the 2022 Young Guns Class, representing a generation of leaders who have accomplished great things through their careers in the business world and in their communities.

A 2020 inductee into the WVU College of Physical Activity and Sport Sciences Hall of Fame, Zinn has twice received national recognition from the Sports Business Journal, being named to their Forty Under 40 honors in 2019, and selected as one of SBJ's Game Changers in 2016.

She earned a bachelor's degree and master's degree in sport management from West Virginia University.

Zinn began her career in collegiate athletics, serving as a compliance assistant with the Big East (2003-2004) before joining the University of Maryland as an assistant athletics director for compliance (2005-2010).

Zinn and her husband, Nathaniel, married in 2017.

FOOTBALL ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS

JIMMY GILL
ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR, COMMUNICATIONS

Office: 732-445-8103 • Cell: 732-991-9486
E-mail: jgill@scarletknights.com • X: @jgill027

Jimmy Gill has worked with Rutgers football since 2013 and is in his sixth season as the primary communications contact for the program after being promoted to associate athletic director. He first joined the athletic communications office in 2011 for one academic year before heading to Miami (Fla.) and returning to be part of Rutgers' transition to the Big Ten. Gill also served 11 seasons as the baseball contact and eight as the gymnastics contact for the Scarlet Knights. In 2022, RU saw P Adam Korsak win the Ray Guy Award in becoming the first player in program history to win a national on-field award. Gill was promoted from assistant director of athletic communications to associate director in June 2014 and was part of the 2014 staff that was honored by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) as a recipient of the Super 11 Award. Prior to coming back to RU, Gill worked at Miami (Fla.) as the volleyball and third football contact in the fall of 2012. The volleyball team successfully earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament and Gill was named CoSIDA Division I Volleyball East Region Sports Information Director Honoree for his efforts along the way. After the football season, he worked as a media relations assistant for the Orange Bowl committee for its annual game and the BCS National Championship. During the 2011-2012 academic year, Gill served as athletic communications assistant at Rutgers as the contact for baseball, volleyball, women's tennis and gymnastics. He successfully promoted the Big East Player of the Year for baseball in addition to expanding the social media presence for each of his four sports. A native of Lewes, Delaware, he earned a bachelor's degree in political science from Swarthmore (Pa.) College in 2010, before receiving his master's degree in sport administration from the University of Miami (Fla.) in 2011. While working toward his master's degree, Gill worked as a graduate assistant in the UM communications office, helping with all aspects of the office while functioning as the primary women's golf contact. He got his start in the business in the Swarthmore sports information department as a student worker with a primary focus on statistics for various sports. Gill was a four-year starter for the Garnet baseball team, earning all-conference honors and captaining the program's first-ever playoff appearance as a senior in 2010. An outfielder, he left in the top 10 in program history in games played, doubles, RBIs and single-season home runs. Gill resides in Piscataway.

BRADLY DERECHAILO
DIRECTOR, COMMUNICATIONS

Office: 732-445-7028 • Cell: 732-647-5034
E-mail: bderechailo@scarletknights.com • X: @Bradly_D

A two-time Rutgers alumnus, Bradly Derechailo joined Rutgers Athletics in 2015. Derechailo serves as the primary media contact for the Scarlet Knights' wrestling, women's golf, and women's lacrosse programs, while providing secondary support for football. Derechailo also oversees the communications department's internship program. The Keyport, New Jersey, native majored in journalism and media studies "On the Banks," earning minors in English and digital communication, information and media. As a student intern at Rutgers from 2014-15, Derechailo served as the media contact for the gymnastics team in addition to his daily office responsibilities. Prior to his work with Rutgers Athletic Communications, Derechailo gained experience as a corporate communications intern for the Chubb Group of Insurance Companies during the summer of 2014. As a member of the Chubb Group, Derechailo produced press releases and helped manage the company's social media accounts among numerous other public relations roles. Derechailo also spent time as a writer and editor for The Daily Targum, Rutgers' daily student-run newspaper, working his way up to the role of Associate Sports Editor on the 145th Editorial Board. In his position, he helped manage the sports desk's team of writers, assigning and writing stories which appeared online and in daily print. Teams covered as a beat writer during his tenure with the paper include football, men's basketball, wrestling, and women's soccer. Derechailo graduated from Rutgers University with his bachelor's degree in 2015 and his master's degree in 2019. Derechailo resides in Somerset with his wife, Tory, and daughter, Cora.

GRIFFIN WHITMER (CREDENTIALS)
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, COMMUNICATIONS

Cell: 908-447-0783
E-mail: gwhitmer@scarletknights.com • X: @GriffinWhitmer

Griffin Whitmer, a 2020 graduate of Rutgers, returned to the Rutgers athletic department in March 2022 and currently serves as Assistant Director, Communications. In his role, Whitmer is the primary contact for baseball, women's soccer and gymnastics. He also oversees the credentialing process and stats operation for football. Whitmer joined Rutgers after serving multiple roles in the athletic department at the University of Washington in Seattle. He joined UW in February 2021 as a graduate assistant and was the primary contact for the baseball program. He moved to the role of Communications Assistant in the summer of 2021, continuing his work with the baseball team and also acting as the media contact for both men's and women's soccer, softball and gymnastics. He worked with the UW men's soccer team, managing communications, social media and game management efforts for the Huskies, who reached No. 1 in the national rankings, hosted three NCAA Tournament matches and advanced to the National Championship Game in the College Cup. He was the secondary media contact for the UW men's basketball and women's basketball teams and served on the nationally-recognized stat crew for football, working all Washington home games as well as the Rose Bowl Game in Pasadena, Calif. in January 2022. While at UW, Whitmer received a M.Ed. in Intercollegiate Athletic Leadership with a focus on administration. Whitmer is a 2020 graduate of Rutgers, holding a degree in Sport Management. At RU, he was a staff writer, Associate Sports Editor and correspondent at the Daily Targum from 2016-18 before moving to the Rutgers athletic department. He worked as a marketing intern from 2018-19 and then as a communications intern from 2019-20.

HASIM PHILLIPS
EXECUTIVE SENIOR ASSOCIATE AD/ CHIEF COMMUNICATIONS OFFICER

Office: 732-445-6069 • Cell: 732-470-9457
E-mail: hphillips@scarletknights.com • X: @HasimPhillips

Hasim Phillips serves as Executive Senior Associate Athletic Director and Chief Communications Officer, with oversight of the department's communication and RVision staffs. Phillips serves as the primary spokesman for the department and is a member of the executive leadership team. Prior to his elevation to overseeing the communications staff, Phillips was the lead media relations contact for the football program, handling all media inquiries for the program's coaches and players. Additionally, he was the executive producer for the two-time Emmy Award-winning "RFootball Show," a 12-episode television series with distribution throughout the East Coast from New York to areas in South Florida. Phillips also managed all football-related content on the school's official athletics website (ScarletKnights.com) and social media channels. For Phillips, this is the second stint with Rutgers Athletics, having previously served with the department from 2004-2012. He began his career in athletic communications at Rutgers in 2004, serving as an assistant until 2007 before becoming an Assistant Director for Athletic Communications from 2007-11. While at Rutgers, he was a member of an athletic communications staff that was twice (2009, 2010) recognized by the Football Writers Association of America as a "Super 11" communications department, awarded to the top PR offices in the country. In 2011, he was elevated to the role of Associate Director of Athletic Communications, serving as the primary media contact for Hall of Fame head coach C. Vivian Stringer and the women's basketball team. Phillips joined The Madison Square Garden Company in 2012 as Manager for Corporate Communications. He assisted in the publicity efforts of the MSG Sports brand, helping promote marketing partnerships and new business initiatives. He also worked to promote the New York Knicks' community service initiative "Basketball in the Boroughs," securing targeted media opportunities to highlight the franchise's work in the community. He was involved with press event planning in the corporate and sports business areas, including the grand reopening event following a historic three-phase, top-to-bottom transformation of Madison Square Garden. He also assisted in preparing senior-level management for speaking engagements and developing press materials for marketing partner announcements. Phillips also managed inquiries regarding the use of MSG trademarks or logos in television or film projects. He was responsible for script review and concept approval in addition to working with production crews while filming on site at Madison Square Garden. He served as a liaison between MSG, the corporate offices of the National Basketball Association (NBA) and National Hockey League (NHL), and several major motion picture and television studios. Phillips, a native of Brooklyn, New York, is a 2004 graduate of Rutgers University with a degree in sports management. He earned his MBA in marketing and strategy from the Rutgers School of Business in 2019. Phillips resides in Metuchen, New Jersey, with his wife Catherine and their sons, Malakai and Miles.

COMMISSIONER TONY PETITTI

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Known as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten Conference is home to a lineage of legendary names and an ongoing tradition of developing strong leaders. Even in its infancy, the conference established itself as the preeminent collection of institutions in the nation, where the pursuit of academic excellence prevailed as the definitive goal.

The history of the Big Ten traces back more than 125 years to the Palmer House hotel in Chicago where, on January 11, 1895, Purdue President James H. Smart and leaders from the University of Chicago, University of Illinois, University of Michigan, University of Minnesota, Northwestern University and University of Wisconsin set out to organize and develop principles for the regulation of intercollegiate athletics.

At that meeting, a blueprint for the administration of college athletics under the direction of appointed faculty representatives was outlined. The presidents' first known action "restricted eligibility for athletics to bona fide, full-time students who were not delinquent in their studies." That important legislation, along with other legislation that would follow in the coming years, served as the primary building block for intercollegiate athletics.

On February 8, 1896, one faculty member from each of those seven universities met at the same Palmer House and officially established the fundamentals of the conference, which was officially incorporated as the "Intercollegiate Conference Athletic Association" in 1905.

Indiana University and the State University of Iowa became the eighth and ninth members in 1899. In 1908, Michigan briefly withdrew its membership, and in 1912 Ohio State University joined the conference, bringing the membership total back to nine. Upon Michigan's return in 1917, the conference was first referred to as the "Big Ten" by media members, a name that was eventually incorporated in 1987.

As the 1900s dawned, faculty representatives established rules for intercollegiate athletics that were novel for the time. As early as 1904, the faculty approved legislation that required eligible athletes to meet entrance requirements and to have completed a full year's work, along with having one year of residence.

In 1901, the first Big Ten Championship event was staged when the outdoor track and field championships were conducted at the University of Chicago. The debut event marked what is now a staple of conference competition. Today, the Big Ten sponsors 28 official sports, 14 for men and 14 for women. Big Ten schools compete in a total of 42 different sports, furthering the conference's commitment to broad-based programming and providing more participation opportunities than any conference in the country.

One of the conference's proudest traditions began in 1902 when Michigan took on Stanford in the Rose Bowl, the nation's first bowl game. Big Ten teams only appeared in Pasadena twice before the conference signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl game with permanent conference affiliations. But Michigan's appearance in 1902 cultivated a relationship that has endured for more than a century.

Coupling the academic goals set forth by leaders of the charter members of the conference and their steadfast commitment to athletics, the conference instituted the Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915, the first award to demonstrate support for the educational emphasis placed on intercollegiate athletics. It is awarded annually by each conference institution to one male and one female student of the graduating class who have attained the greatest proficiency in scholarship and athletics. For more than 100 years, it has been the most prestigious honor a Big Ten student-athlete can receive.

In 1922, Major John L. Griffith became the conference's first "Commissioner of Athletics." Griffith was the first of seven men to assume the role of commissioner in the conference's history, followed by Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson in 1945, Bill Reed in 1961, Wayne Duke in 1971, Jim Delany in 1989, Kevin Warren in 2020, and current commissioner Tony Petitti in 2023.

After nearly 30 years with 10 members, the conference consolidated to nine schools when the University of Chicago formally withdrew its membership in 1946. Michigan State College (now Michigan State University) was added to the Big Ten three years later, bringing the number of affiliated conference schools to 10 once again.

In 1955, the Big Ten formulated a revenue-sharing model designed to pool all football television rights of its members and share those proceeds equally. The conference and its members continue to utilize a revenue-sharing model, dividing media rights, bowl payouts and other profits among all institutions.

While academics have always played an integral role in the conference, presidents of the Big Ten member institutions formalized the primacy of academics with the establishment of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly the Committee on Institutional Cooperation) in 1958. The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all Big Ten universities. Annually, the schools currently constituting the Big Ten Academic Alliance produce over $10 billion in funded research, doubling any other conference.

In one of Duke's first actions as commissioner, he oversaw the adoption of the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, designed to study conference programs and make suggestions which would further Big Ten objectives. The Advisory Commission enlists former students that competed in Big Ten athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

In 1981, the conference presidents and chancellors endorsed a proposal that enabled universities to affiliate their women's intercollegiate programs with the conference, and the first conference championships for women were staged that fall. The Big Ten was the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.

In December of 1989, the conference agreed in principle to invite Pennsylvania State University for membership. On June 4, 1990, the Council of Presidents officially voted to integrate Penn State into the conference, giving the Big Ten 11 members.

In 2004, the Big Ten implemented a pilot program of instant replay for college football. Following the season, the conference forwarded replay proposals to the NCAA regarding the future use of the pioneering technology, where it approved countrywide testing in 2005. In 2006, the NCAA approved the use of instant replay for all conferences.

In 2006, Delany announced the creation of the first conference-owned television network, a 20-year agreement with FOX Networks to create the Big Ten Network (BTN). Launched on Aug. 30, 2007, BTN now produces more than 2,200 live events across all platforms each year. The 24/7 network is the ultimate destination for Big Ten fans and alumni across the country and around the world, allowing them to see their favorite teams, regardless of where they live.

On June 11, 2010, the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C) approved a formal membership application by the University of Nebraska, expanding the conference to 12 institutions. Nebraska officially joined the Big Ten on July 1, 2011.

The conference expanded its footprint further in 2012 when the COP/C approved formal membership applications from the University of Maryland and Rutgers University on November 19 and 20, respectively. Maryland and Rutgers became official Big Ten members on July 1, 2014, giving the conference almost 9,500 students participating in intercollegiate athletics and more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams.

On June 3, 2013, the Big Ten announced that Johns Hopkins University had been accepted as the conference's first sport affiliate member. Johns Hopkins' addition in men's lacrosse gave the Big Ten six institutions sponsoring the sport, allowing the debut of men's lacrosse as an official conference sport and building on the Big Ten's tradition of broad-based sports competition. On June 17, 2015, the conference announced that Johns Hopkins also was accepted as a sport affiliate member for women's lacrosse beginning with the 2016-17 academic year. On March 23, 2016, the conference announced that Notre Dame would be joining the Big Ten for men's ice hockey beginning with the 2017-18 academic year.

In recent years the Big Ten has worked to meet the educational needs of modern student-athletes to allow them to excel in all areas of their lives. In May of 2020, the conference announced the formation of the Big Ten Mental Health and Wellness Cabinet, featuring representation from all 14 member institutions, as well as sport affiliate members. The goal of the cabinet is to promote optimal mental health for Big Ten student-athletes through a comprehensive, systemic and interdisciplinary approach to establishing mental health programs, while also providing counsel, advice and expertise to the conference office.

In June of 2020 the conference launched the Big Ten Equality Coalition. This group, which features student-athletes, coaches, athletic directors, chancellors, presidents and other members of the Big Ten family from all 14 member institutions, has a stated goal of seeking tangible ways to actively and constructively combat racism and hate around the world, while also empowering student-athletes to express their rights to free speech and peaceful protest. One product of conversations emerging from the coalition was the creation of the Big Ten Voter Registration Initiative. This non-partisan, conference-wide collaboration encourages student-athletes to take part in the electoral process and is led by a Voter Registration Committee that includes representatives from all 14 Big Ten institutions. The Voter Registration Committee has partnered with the National Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law to develop educational programming and outreach tools, and to collaborate with other established civic platforms.

On June 30, 2022, the Big Ten Conference furthered its legacy of transformation when the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C) voted unanimously to admit the University of California, Los Angeles and the University of Southern California to the conference effective August 2, 2024. Competition began for all conference sports in the 2024-25 academic year. With the schools' admission, UCLA and USC also joined the Big Ten Academic Alliance (BTAA), a consortium of world-class research institutions dedicated to advancing their academic missions.

In July of 2022, the Big Ten traveled a delegation of student-athletes and administrators from its member institutions to Selma and Montgomery, Alabama, for an immersive experience entitled: "Big Life Series: Selma to Montgomery." The pilgrimage to one of the key centers of the civil rights movement was highlighted by a march across the Edmund Pettus Bridge in Selma, which is the site of the 1965 Bloody Sunday attack. The delegation also visited the Montgomery Interpretive Center on the campus of Alabama State University to learn more about the profound impact that students had on the civil rights movement, and the significance of the Knight vs. Alabama landmark trial which ended the segregation of funding in higher education across the State of Alabama. The experience was so transformational for all involved that the Big Ten returned to Selma and Montgomery in 2023 and 2024.

In April of 2023, the Big Ten announced that Petitti was selected as the conference's seventh commissioner. With nearly four decades of sports, business and media industry acumen, he served as deputy commissioner and chief operating officer of Major League Baseball and president and chief executive officer of MLB Network. A 14-time National Sports Emmy Award winner, Petitti also held senior executive roles at CBS Sports and ABC Sports overseeing rights acquisition deals for a variety of sports leagues and collegiate and professional sports events, including the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, regular season men's basketball, college football, NFL, PGA Tour, the Masters, U.S. Open Tennis Championships, and the Little League World Series, as well as leading in the creation of the Bowl Championship Series to determine college football's national champion.

On August 4, 2023, the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors voted unanimously to admit the University of Oregon and the University of Washington to the conference effective August 2, 2024. Competition began in all sports for the 2024-25 academic year. With the schools' admission, Oregon and Washington joined the Big Ten Academic Alliance (BTAA), a consortium of world-class research institutions dedicated to advancing their academic missions.
